BUCKNELL DEFEATS HAVERFORD.

TEAM FROM LEWISBURG TOO GOOD FOR US. OUTWEIGHED AND OUTPLAYED, THE SCARLET AND BLACK DIES GAME.

A game that was fast and well played, in spite of an exceedingly muddy field, took place up in the wilds of Lewisburg, Pa., last Saturday. Our men put up their usual hard fight, but were completely outclassed in every department of the game. There is this much comfort, that it was impossible for either team to use the forward pass, which forms, perhaps, the most effective arm of our offense. This was made impossible by the condition of the ground and, hence, the condition of the ball. For it had rained steadily there from Wednesday till Friday afternoon, and Friday night the resulting liquid mud had frozen. By the time the game was called, a top dressing, so to speak, of dirty water covered solid earth. The whole formed about as poor footing as could be devised. Bucknell had an attack through the line that was almost irresistible, and the score was 15 to 0. That is the story of the game in brief.

To be more explicit, though, we will go into details. Haverford lost the toss and kicked off against the wind. The kick went a trifle wide and to the tackle, who rushed the ball back past several tacklers behind perfect interference, to the middle of the field. From there the march began. It seemed as if nothing could stop the line plungers who came tearing through, first on one side and then on the other, varying their attack from straight to cross bucks. In fact nothing did stop them till they crossed the goal line for the first score and Topham kicked the goal before three minutes of play had passed. Again Haverford kicked, but this time true to the five yard line, and the full-back was downed in his tracks. They immediately returned the kick, and for a time there was a duel between the punters. Here also Bucknell had decidedly the better. There was no fumbling on either side, but the ends of the home team were faster and got down sooner. This duel lasted almost all the rest of the half, and brought the ball far into Haverford's territory. The wily Schmidt, quarter for the orange and blue, showed his good judgment by putting in an excellent fake now and then which succeeded well.

The Bucknell rooters showed good sportsmanship. Before the players returned from the gym, everyone from the bleachers lined up, formed a lane to the field and cheered each team as they came out. If the yells were more vociferous for the home men than for the visitors, it would have needed a seismograph to record the difference. The third period was a repetition of the first. Again came the steady march down the field and across the goal line. Score, Bucknell 12 and Haverford 0. So far we have made no mention of the times, and they were numerous, when Haverford held for downs and kicked out from the shadow of their goal posts. Once when the advance of the attackers was stopped, Topham dropped back and kicked a neat goal from his thirty yard line, a seemingly impossible feat from the soggy field. Score, Bucknell 15 Haverford 0. This ended all scoring. After this, the ball wandered back and forth, up and down the field with neither side in the advantage. Twice our team had an opportunity but failed in the crucial moment, either through an intercepted forward pass or, as once happened, through a blocked kick.

The only thing that happened to mar a perfect game were two disqualifications. Once a man ran into and upset the kicker, probably unintentionally, but the referee was adamant. The other time was not quite so accidental.

For Haverford, new stars came into the ascendant. H. M. Thomas showed himself to be true varsity material and Brownlee, who has been "off his game" lately, came back into his old time form. The center of the line was not up to its mark. On the other hand, they were pitted against a wonderful set of men, each an old player, heavy and fast. The opposing backfield was as good as any that had been met so far.

NATURAL HISTORY CLUB.

PLANS FOR THE YEAR.

The college body has no doubt been surprised by the appearance of three large cases on the landing by the Biology Laboratory. They have seen also a few zinc labels fastened to some of the trees around the main buildings. This has been the work of a small, almost unknown organization—the Natural History Club. President Sharpless has given the opportunity, through his generous support, and the club is doing the work.

Some years ago, before the dining room was built, there was a museum occupying the space from the Biology lecture room to and including all the present Biology Laboratory. In this large room were collections comprising birds, nests, eggs, plants, insects, animals, shells, minerals, woods, fossils, coins and numerous curios. When the Biology Department was enlarged the museum was discontinued for lack of space, and the specimens were stowed away in the most available places. The birds found their way into the rear loft of Roberts Hall, where they have remained ever since. The minerals and other collections were stowed in the loft of Founders, and have never been touched.

Three years ago the Nature Club was formed by a few fellows principally interested in ornithology, for the purpose of discovering what had become of the old collections, to renovate them and, if possible, to put them once more on exhibition. It was incorporated as a branch of the Scientific Society, and since then has not been heard of.

During the year of 1909-10, however, we fumigated, classified, and placed in insect proof cases all the "bird-skins." The mounted birds have been collecting the dust of six or seven years. Some were falling to pieces. The stands were, to say the least, variegated. In the fall of 1910 the club undertook the renovation of the entire collection of mounted birds. This consisted in unmounting, dusting, painting the mounts, remounting, classifying, labeling, and cataloguing 1,300 birds. So far, the warblers and finches have been finished.

Last spring the club undertook the labeling of the trees on the campus, and is now only awaiting the arrival of some galvanized bolts.

Though no work has been done this fall on the birds, the cases have been procured, and are only awaiting the finishing touches to be put into use. We need new blood in the club. We need new men to take up the work and carry it on

MUSICAL CLUBS ACTIVE

COMMENCE REHEARSALS FOR CONCERTS THIS WINTER.

The Glee Club of the Cap and Bells Society has already started work. D. P. Falconer has been elected leader and several rehearsals have been held in the Union. There are about thirty-five candidates, including most of the members of last year's operetta who are still in college. There are also a number of very promising Freshmen. Plans for a number of concerts are being made.

The Mandolin Club, under the leadership of O. M. Porter, has also started rehearsals. Several members of the 1910 Mandolin Club are still in college, and there are a number of new men who play. This organization also expects to give several concerts.

It is planned for the Glee and Mandolin Clubs to give a joint concert with the Lehigh University musical clubs, at South Bethlehem, some time before Christmas, and a concert followed by a dance, to take place at the Merion Cricket Club, will probably take place during the winter.

SOCCOR SCHEDULE COMMITTEE.

Manager Shipley, of the soccer team, has been working hard to complete his schedule, and has at last succeeded in filling all of his open dates for the first team, in addition to securing a number of games for the second team, whose season starts on the second of December. The list contains some of the best teams in and around the city. He has also secured several games for the third team, which will start work soon after Christmas.

JOHN GARRIGUES IMPROVING

The doctors at the Bryn Mawr Hospital report that John Garrigues' injured leg is mending as rapidly as can be expected of such a serious break. The bones had to be reset, with the aid of the X-ray, which proved very painful. A number of the fellows have been in to see him and to assure him that everyone is hoping for his speedy recovery.

when we Seniors have gone. We want workers, energetic workers, for the work is by no means small. It is varied enough to suit all tastes. In a few days a meeting will be called of all men who are interested enough to take up the work.

EDITORIAL

AN APPRECIATION.

An alumnus who visited the college in the middle of the season, to speak at a football meeting, was very enthusiastic about the new songs, new yell and the yim with which they were delivered. During the past four years the spirit here at Haverford has been severely tested. The teams, though gallant fighters, have been unable to score, and there is nothing harder than to be enthusiastic about a losing team. But never once have the supporters wavered. At every game they have displayed the same stick-to-it-iveness that has been seen on the field of play. And this is "good medicine." It is good for the college, it is good for the team, and it is good for the individual. This season has been more successful than the previous years. Four games out of eight won by a team that adds to the perennial gameness an ability to score, tend to form a spur for the most sluggardly. And the college has responded nobly. There have been frequent and well-attended football meetings as well as big cheering sections. The college may be said to have gone to Lancaster, only a few spineless individuals and disappointed well-wishers remaining behind. Several traveled as far as Hoboken from college while the New York alumni turned out in force. The two defeats by Lehigh and Trinity have failed to act as an effectual damper, and in each case the last play was cheered to the echo. A great amount of credit is due Cheer Leader Rhoad for his untiring efforts and good offices. It is just possible that, with a less enthusiastic leader we might not have had an opportunity to write this editorial.

Last year at this time it was hinted in this column that a big game, with which to end the season, was necessary, that the college might be welded into one unit. It now seems improbable that this be obtained. However, in lieu of this, we have done pretty well with a good team and a good cheer leader. But let us make note here that these are uncertain quantities. We still live in hope.

A CLOSE CONTEST EXPECTED.

Next Tuesday afternoon the annual Sophomore-Freshman football game will take place on Walton Field. This contest will probably be a very close and exciting one, and is the cause of almost as much interest among the undergraduates as any of the intercollegiate struggles. Last year the present Sophomore class was defeated 17-0 by the present Juniors. They played without the services of Seckel, who had been injured, however, and had had less experience than their opponents. The Freshmen, on the other hand, have no regular varsity men in their line-up, but the entire team is composed of good football material, nevertheless. The game will no doubt be a fast and hard one and should be well worth seeing. Added to this, it is the final event on the Haverford football schedule for 1911, and with it the curtain rings down on the great fall sport, and soccer takes the leading place on our college stage.

PRESTON.

On Tuesday night, the 28th, a pre-Thanksgiving service will be held at Preston Reading Room at 7:45. The Rev. Edwin Yates Hill, D.D., will speak, and everyone is cordially invited to be present. Contributions of vegetables, fruits, canned goods, flowers, etc., will be most thankfully received. On Wednesday morning baskets will be packed and distributed by a visitor representative of all the churches of the neighborhood combined..

This year it is hoped that the turkey may be provided for by the contributions from the college. Ten cents apiece from all of us would help A LOT toward making several poor homes happy on Thanksgiving Day!

The following committee will gladly receive any contribution you wish to make: A. L. Marshall, F. A. Curtis, E. M. Jones, C. L. Newell, J. Ellison, Jr., W. C. Longstreth, C. T. Moon.

At a suggestion from Manager Ritts, in an athletic association meeting, a committee has been appointed to provide a standard pattern for the college H and also a gym. insignia. The constitution was revised last year, but no definite size for the H was given.

Herbert W. Taylor, 1914, has been elected to the position of associate editor of the Weekly.

SOCCER TEAM LOSES.
MOORESTOWN VICTORIOUS IN LOOSELY PLAYED GAME.

On Saturday afternoon, Moorestown won from the Haverford soccer team by the score of 2 to 0. The teams were very evenly matched, but the Haverford players were sadly deficient in team work, and their forwards were unable to shoot when they did get the ball near their opponent's goal. The college backs played well, and during the first half, despite the fact that the ball was often in Haverford territory, the goal was hardly ever threatened. Only once did they score, when Furness placed the ball in the net from close to the goal. In the beginning of the second half the college team had things much their own way, and kept the ball close to Moorestown's goal, but here the weakness of the Haverford forwards kept them from evening up the score. Later in this half, the Moorestown team rallied and again took the ball to Haverford's end of the field, and E. Stokes succeeded in making another score from directly in front of the goal. This ended the scoring.

For Moorestown, Taylor, Tostenon, Sumner and R. Perkins played the best, while Smith, Baily and Bently starred for Haverford.

The line-up:

Haverford.	Moorestown.
Tatnall goal	Atkinson
Bailey right fullback	Tostenon
VanSickle right halfback	Nicholson
Smith center halfback	Spencer
Nicholson left halfback	Sumner
Falconer outside right	E. Stokes
Elkinton inside right	E. Stokes
Downing center forward	H. Furness
Ferris inside left	H. Perkins
Referee—J. Lyall	Linesmen—Jones and Smith

Length of halves—35 minutes. Goals for Moorestown, E. Stokes, 2; Furness.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

One of the most successful entertainments ever held at Preston took place on Friday evening. "The Reveries of a Bachelor" was presented by members of the Reading Room, after which A. S. Young and Bradway, '11, former members of the committee, gave some comic songs and recitations. After the entertainment, refreshments were served in the gymnasium. A large audience was present.

Mr. Marsden, superintendent of the naval branch of the Y. M. C. A., at League Island, and three marines, spoke at Preston on Sunday evening. The meeting was well attended.

J. Jarden Guenther spoke in Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening. He delivered one of the best talks heard there this year.

Frederick H. Strawbridge, '87, will speak to the members of the Class in Economics I, at the regular hour on Tuesday morning, in "Department Store Management." It is hoped that the whole class may be present on that occasion.

INTERCLASS SOCCER.
MANAGER SHIPLEY ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE.

In order to create a more general interest in soccer, the interclass series this year has been arranged in such a way that the victorious team must win two out of three games from each opponent in order to secure the championship. Added to this there will be a cup awarded each year to the winning class, and this will be kept by the man most responsible for the team's success until the next year's matches shall have determined to whom it shall be transferred. This man will be selected by the grounds committee in consultation with the team captains.

The class teams will play as follows:

Tuesday, December 5, 1912 vs. 1913, and 1914 vs. 1915.
Tuesday, December 12. Same.
Tuesday, December 19. Same.
Thursday, January 4, or Tuesday, January 9. Winners of preceding series play.
Tuesday, January 16. Same.
Tuesday, January 23. Same.

OUR TRINITY RECORD.

In our last issue we stated that our defeat at the hands of Trinity made the sixth successive victory which the team from Hartford had secured over the Scarlet and Black. This was a mistake. We have been playing Trinity since 1905. The first game resulted in a 28-21 triumph for Haverford. The next contest was a 0-0 tie. The remaining games have been won by Trinity. This gives Haverford the record of one win, one tie and five defeats instead of six as stated.

SOPHOMORES DEFEAT WESTTOWN.

WIN SOCCER GAME BY SCORE OF 1 TO 0.

On Thursday afternoon the college Sophomores won a close soccer game from Westtown School by the score of 1 to 0. This is the first time in a number of years that a class team has won from Westtown, and 1914 deserves great credit for it. Westtown pressed things during the greater part of the game, and had a number of shots, but the excellent work of L. Stokes at goal prevented a score. Green, F. Elkinton and Thomas also played very well. The Sophomores made their score at the very end of the game, when Miller shot a neat goal from one side.

The men who played for 1914 were L. Stokes, goal; Jones and F. Elkinton, fullbacks; Thomas, Downing and Green, halfbacks; and Bently, Miller, L. Elkinton, E. Stokes and Ferguson, forwards.

THE TRIP.

A successful season, financially as well as in games won, warmed Manager Ritts' heart towards his war-worn, battle-scarred gladiators, and he decided to spend a liberal guarantee in giving them a good time. Hence on arriving at Reading Terminal, he ushered them grandiosely into a sumptuous Pullman where they were told to make themselves at home, and whence soon arose appetizing odors of broiled steak and toast. They proceeded to do as they were bid, and soon, attired, some in sweaters, some in shirt-sleeves, they were scattered comfortably about in the deep-cushioned seats, reading, playing cards and what not. Presently arrived a grinning Ethiopian with tables, snowy nappy and silver; an excellent meal realized into solid substances, the above-mentioned odors, and all fell to with a will. Thus, light-heartedly, was the journey begun. Two hours passed and the time began to hang heavy, in spite of the passing vaudeville of the towns en route. Here it would be well to insert asterisks, but the truth will out. The swaying motion of the train began to recall to the more fortunate the swells of the mighty Atlantic, to the others the pristine cigarette. Fortunately the reminiscences were not too vivid, and the team arrived at their destination without mishap. The waiter was not so lucky. He left the world for five minutes owing to the engineer's novel idea with regard to stopping the train, and the relative hardness of bone and wooden doors.

The night was spent at the New Carlton, Lewisburg's palatial (?) home for traveling salesmen. During the night a band serenaded them which did not lull the slumbering ear. (One should go to Lewisburg, if necessary.) The consensus of opinion was that ().

After the game, training ceased and smokes were passed around. The return trip was jolly, but considerably dampened by the same swaying which was noticed on the way up. Some were sobered by the thought that their football days were over.

The election for the next year's captain was held, and the choice fell to C. W. Longstreth, '13. He has played on the varsity well for two years, and every one has full confidence that he will be a good leader.

The Committee on Football Awards met and gave the following:

Varsity "H" to Murray, Farquhar, Cope, Moon, Brownlee and Wallerstein, 1912; Froelicher and L. R. Thomas, 1913; and Taylor, Sangree and Seckel, 1914. The cup to the most conscientious Senior on the scrub to Steere; to the most conscientious Freshman, Pharo. The numerals are not yet announced.

Coach Guiney also chose an All American Wogglebug football team. This is as follows:

On a muddy field, the Senior Wogglebugs defeated the Juniors by the score of 12 to 0, on Thursday, after the regular practice. Despite the slippery condition of the field the play was fast throughout, and a number of thrilling plays were pulled off by both sides. From start to finish, however, the Seniors had the better of the argument. They made many long gains through the weaker line of their opponents, and worked a number of long forward passes. The play was mostly in 1913's half of the field, and often the fourth year men were held for downs dangerously near to the goal line. Their first touchdown came in the third quarter, when Ritts carried the ball over on a line plunge from the one-yard line, Smith kicking the goal, and this was followed in the last period by a touchdown by Baily, after 1912 had recovered a fumbled punt close to the goal line. Smith again kicked the goal, and this ended the scoring.

For the Seniors, Smith, Ritts, Stere and Baily were the stars, while Tatnall, Hall, Howson and Crosman excelled for the Juniors.

The line-up:

1913.	1912.
Hall right end	Howson
Nichelson right tackle	Froelicher
Maule right guard	Bowerman
Tatnall centre	Brewer

The cricket shed has been opened to the Freshmen and almost thirty of them are already working hard. This number includes quite a few who have never played before, but who are anxious to learn the game. All but four of the fifteen-minute periods have already been taken.

The inhabitants of Centre Barclay, following the example of those of North Barclay, Merion Annex and Lloyd, have secured a phonograph, and, not to be left behind, the inmates of South Barclay are contemplating installing one of these instruments in their hall. Soon there will be no rest for the wicked in any part of the college.

Burglary Insurance

Records show that in the large cities and suburbs there are four times as many burglaries as there are fires. We issue the broadest Burglary Policy written. It is free from all technicalities and many of the restrictions of other policies. The cost is little and the protection great. We would be glad to call and explain.
