AMBULANCE CORPS VOLUNTEERS SAIL FOR ENGLAND

TWO MEN FROM HAVERFORD AND TWO FROM EARLHAM TO JOIN AMBULANCE UNIT IN BELGIUM IN EIGHT WEEKS

Haverford has had an interesting part in the work of Friends for the relief of suffering in the continental war area. Philip J. Baker, who spent one year at Haverford, is the organizer of the Friends' Ambulance Unit, and Norman Cadbury and Lawrence Rountree, former students at Haverford, have been working in the Unit since its organization. Henry Cope, of '69, has gone to England for relief work and has been given a position of service in the Friends' Unit.

Professor Rufus M. Jones undertook this spring to raise a fund to enable Haverford men and others, who wished to volunteer, to enter this service. Four men have been admitted to the privileges of this fund and sailed, as volunteers, on the "St. Paul," June 19th. They are Edward Rice, Jr., 1914, and Felix M. Morley, 1915, of Haverford College, and Howard L. Carey and Earl Fowler of the Class of 1915 in Earlham College. They will have a period of preliminary training of five or six weeks at Jordan's, in England, and will then probably join the Unit at some point in Belgium. All Haverford men will follow their work with keen interest and will be glad to have these representatives of the College in this field of service.

SAVAGE DEFEATS COLLEGE BY HIS BOWLING AND BATTING

The college eleven lost a closely contested cup match on the Saturday afternoon after Commencement to Team B of the Germantown Cricket Club by the score of 118 to 97. The defeat was very largely due to the fine work of Savage, the individual star of the nine visitors who appeared, as his work both on the offence and defence was fatal to Haverford. He caught a fly over his head from "Woody" Crosman's bat and took 6 wickets at a cost of 22 runs as his share in disposing of Haverford men, while, with his own team's total 65 and their defeat still possible with only four more men to bat, he hammered out a series of long drives which gave his colleagues a century and victory, and himself high score with 32.

As on the previous day in the alumni match, the fielding feature of the game was the work of Kirk at drive. On Myer's long hit he made a stop which would be judged either a fly or a pick-up, but the ball was played as pick-up and Magill run out by six or seven feet. All in all, the game was one of the best of the season, with the most formidable bowling that the team had probably yet met.

We have included in Cricket Week two games which did not really belong there, namely, the game on Commencement Day and the ensuing one with Germantown B; including these two games, however, from June 11th to June 19th, inclusive, a period of nine days, seven and one-half games were played, in the first three of which the College team used four bowlers, and three in the remainder. Their lowest score was 97 and their highest was 231. Not counting the half game in, the College grand total of runs was 1,015 as against their opponents' 833. Moreover, for those same totals the College lost only 62 wickets to their opponents' 71, thus making their average per wicket 16.37 runs and their opponents' 11.73 runs per wicket.

PILGRIM'S HIT ROCK

AND CAPTAIN P. H. CLARK'S GOOD SHIP SINKS, 57 TO 114. LUCKY SHOWER GIVES COLLEGE BOWLERS BIG ADVANTAGE OVER PILGRIM BATTING

It was an assemblage of international stars lacking, of course, the great "J.B.," that greeted the College team on Friday, and although Captain Brinton won the toss (something which later on meant the game), our beginning was most inauspicious. Eddie Crosman was caught out for 1, Brinton was bowled for 0, J. Carey went the same way for 1. (We might remark here that certain gray hairs in Captain Brinton's head are due to the non-presence in the fray of Carey and Wendell long after two o'clock—all on account of an unfortunate puncture.) Hence the change in the usual batting order.

With our total at less than 10, and 3 out, things looked far from "fair-to-middlin'." However, Marshall Crosman came across with a sadly needed 53, although the tally figured up to a rather measly 114 when our last wicket had fallen.

But ho! for the rain! It came in a gentle little shower, and lasted about ten minutes. After that there was nothing to it, for the crease was soft on the surface and hard underneath—in order words, a bowler's delight. And mighty was the fall thereof. There was a flash of stellar light for a minute or two when "Little" Ed Cregar lifted one by leaning on it, on to Dr. Pratt's house, but outside of his 21, a combination of good bowling, slippery crease and hard luck put the rest of the side out for 34. And any one of them has passed more than once, individually, the whole College total. Summary:

GERMANTOWN A SUCCUMBS AFTER TENSE BATTLE

BRINTON AND J. CAREY BOWL STEADILY FOR THE COLLEGE, AND O'NEIL FOR GERMANTOWN, WHILE J. CAREY'S 62 IS THE BATTING FEATURE OF THE DAY

On Wednesday, the third day of Cricket Week, our boys struck the best match of the year, and came out on the winning side by the score of 169 to 162. It was a game teeming with excitement, and the result so hung in the balance at 6.30, that Captains Brinton and Harned agreed to finish out the game, as a draw for either side would have been entirely unsatisfactory.

For the third time Brinton won the toss, and as usual, J. Carey and E. N. Crosman opened up. O'Neil and P. Clark, both veterans of international cricket, turned on the bowling for Germantown. O'Neil, with his steady length, wily curve and imperceptible changes of pace, seemed to be the only one of the opposing bowlers who could puzzle our batsmen, and his 7 wickets for 62 runs show how successfully he did it. He finally got J. Carey for a hard-hit 62, on an l.b.w. E. N. Crosman was bowled on a perfect ball by O'Neil for 5. Marney Crosman dipped his colors when he was caught a little unawares by the same bowler for 16. Captain Brinton failed to connect with a good length ball from P. Clarke, and retired with 9. Woodie Crosman was the next wicket to fall, after he and Jim Carey had a merry time in slamming the ball to various points of the compass. His contribution was 21. Ellison joined Carey, who shortly after came in with his 62, as heretofore described.

Wendell partnered with Ellison, who had a bit of hard luck in popping one up towards leg, and was caught by Stewart off O'Neil for 10. J. Shipley snickered one to long slip off Clark, for a duck, and shortly after, O'Neil "submarine" one to Wendell's leg stump and sent him out for 14. Clark and O'Neil divided the last two wickets between them, the former bowling Johnson for 13, and the latter Coleman for a duck, leaving Kirk in with 5 not out, and the grand total at 169 for Haverford. Germantown tried two other bowlers, F. Henry and H. Maxwell, but neither got any wickets. Manheim sent in Pearson and Stewart to begin hostilities, while Carey and Brinton represented Haverford's bowling attack. These first two batsmen fell to Jim's bowling for 11 and 9 respectively, while the total stood at 31. The next wicket cheered on the College side with Germantown at 67, Harned being caught at mid-on by Wendell. The fly was hit low, on a long hop off Marney Crosman, and returned Harned to the pavilion with a consistently played 29 that threatened to develop into a long stand with Clark, who was his batting partner. Clark was next put out on a tip to E. N. Crosman off J. Carey for a cleanly hit 30. The next three wickets fell rapidly. Coleman at point catching A. Sexton off Carey, for a goose egg, while Brinton bowled F. Beard for 5 and F. A. Henry for 13. The time was now about five minutes to six, and a slight drizzle started in which made it exceedingly hard to bowl with any consistency. Consequently the loose balls of the next few overs were punished thoroughly by Cheston Carey who was playing for Germantown as they were one short, and H. Maxwell who was carrying his bat

SERVICE SHOULD BE GOAL OF MODERN EDUCATION

PRESIDENT OF TRINITY IN COMMENCEMENT SPEECH WEIGHS SUCCESS OF COLLEGE TRAINING

"The college student of today works more, does more and acquires more than his father did thirty years ago," said President Flavell Sweeten Luther, of Trinity College, in the course of his address at the Haverford Commencement. So keen and able was his discussion of modern educational tendencies and ideals that his speech was the subject of many a favorable comment by Commencement Day visitors.

In introducing the speaker, President Sharpless referred briefly to Haverford's pleasant relations with Trinity, both academic and athletic, to which Dr. Luther added, "Haverford is like Trinity in ideals and instruction. Each College knows itself to be the very best of all small colleges in America."

The statement of the "old-timers" that colleges are not what they used to be is absolutely wrong, declared Dr. Luther, and the idea that there are more distractions and more "rest-cure" in colleges today is a mistaken one. An A.B. now is worth more in point of training than a Ph.D. a generation ago.

Even in early times there were two ideals of education: The Greek theory of cultivation of the individual—self-improvement; and the Roman theory of educating a man to be a servant of the state—self-sacrifice. The early ideals were partially effaced by medievalism, "but," said Dr. Luther, "the Dark Ages were merely the period of preparing the photographic plate which was later to be exposed" and with the Renaissance came revived interest in learning.

Touching on the present conflict of opinions regarding cultural and vocational education, the speaker said, "jumpers and the gown are both the emblems of service, and service is the true purpose of education. If education simply makes you more capable of enjoyment, it is worthless. If it makes you more useful to others, then a college education is the finest thing in the world."

ELLISON 1916 CRICKET CAPTAIN

James Sprague Ellison, Jr., '16, has been elected captain of next year's cricket team. He has played on the first team for three years, 1912, 1913 and 1915. In the season of 1914 he was out of college. His average for the eight games of the Cricket Week was 20.37 runs.

CRICKET WEEK

The experiment of cricket week proved that no better thing could possibly have been done to improve the playing of that game at the College of Haverford. The week was one of victories almost entirely, due to the marvelously steady bowling, the spirit of playing together and the absence of any bad batting slump. The fielding was fair—not as good as last summer's. Good fellowship reigned supreme in a way that will enshrine splendid memories in the hearts of all the twelve men who remained to represent the College on Cope Field.

This week of constant practice ought to give a big advantage to our team in the Philadelphia Cup.

It is to be regretted that so few of the old cricketers came around to see the games—they would have to go far to witness a more exciting match than the one against Germantown A.

If the idea is repeated next year in some form—and it certainly should be—there ought to be an adequate amount of advertising done to make sure that all who take any interest in cricket will have no excuse for not coming. One word more—we take it upon ourselves to represent the whole team in thanking Mr. and Mrs. Sanger and all others having anything to do with it, for the excellent and unflinching good management with which they took care of us during the Cricket Week in 1915.

munity in which every individual had a college education, and hinted at possibilities in the people's occupations, recreations and diversions. Such an ideal will not soon be attained, but in the meantime we can have "a good deal more education for everybody."

President Luther referred to conditions in this country at the time of his own graduation from college. The Civil War had just closed and the task of reconstruction was before the men of the time. "But now," he said, "we have the task before us of building a new civilization, not for a continent, but for the world. It must be a civilization founded on the perpetual truths of honor, justice and self-sacrifice, a civilization of real peace, not a commercial five-dollar holiday peace."

In closing, Dr. Luther drew an illustration from the differences in two particular substances composed of carbon; the diamond, which shines brilliantly by reflecting external light, and the carbon filament which gives forth light when power is applied. "I'd rather be an electric light than a diamond," the speaker declared. His final challenge to college men was, "Are you worth while, or are you trice-a-brac?"

CRICKET WEEK PROPER BEGINS WHEN FIRST XI DRAWS WITH ROVERS

ROVERS 147, COLLEGE 104 FOR 6. WOODIE CROSMAN NOT OUT FOR 36, GETTING TOP SCORE FOR COLLEGE

The "table" where George Bennett sets his creases and watches over them with paternal eye presented such an inviting appearance on last Monday that George was heard to say to one of the fellows on the team, "There's never been a better crease since the first crease was made." And there certainly were never pleasanter conditions under which to begin a week of cricket than on Monday afternoon, on the 14th of June, 1915.

Captain R. M. Gummere had his band of Rovers out in full force, and having won the toss, put in two formidable batters, namely, "Christie" Morris and "Sam" Miffilin, to open up. These two got 32 and 42 in order named, while J. Sharp hammered out 29, the rest of the Rovers amassing only 26 between them.

The College was batting along very consistently, with Willard Crosman getting his eye on the ball in a way that was bringing in quick boundary returns, when the time limit at 6.30 brought a pleasant and interesting game to a close, the College having 104 for six men down. Summary:

SENIOR ALUMNI OFFICERS

Uncertainty in elections prevented the announcement in the Commencement issue of the NEWS of the complete list of 1915 class officers. They are as follows: President, Cyrus Falconer; vice-president, Joseph McNeill; secretary, Donald B. Van Hollen, treasurer; Thomas Hoopes, Jr.

'12 defeated '10 by the score of 16 to 9 on Class of '88 Field, Alumni Day. '12 held a reunion immediately after the game on the campus in front of Lloyd Hall.

COMMUNICATION FROM S. P. C. A.

At the request of the secretary of the Delaware County, S. P. C. A., we print the following report:

The Delaware County Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, chartered for the county, announces it is now prepared to extend its work in all sections. It has done effective work, particularly in the eastern territory, having remedied much abuse and successfully prosecuted parties guilty of various forms of cruelty. Realizing the protection deserved by animals elsewhere, a special agent experienced in the work was recently engaged, and in order to render rapid and effectual aid, a motor cycle has been purchased, by which means calls can be answered quickly, the county patrolled in future, and all towns visited regularly.

The Society will investigate all reasonable complaints, carry on the work in a sensible manner, and the public are asked to co-operate in reporting promptly any abuse, with all information that can be obtained, all communications being strictly confidential. A direct-wire Bell telephone has been installed and the Society listed in the telephone book, which may be used for urgent cases, or complaints may be mailed direct. The Society will co-operate with the police departments and justices of all boroughs toward proper means of preventing abuse and instituting necessary prosecutions.

This announcement will be appreciated by all lovers of animals, and the interest of humane people is requested in assisting the Delaware County Society in its work of teaching kindness and carrying out the provisions of its charter to prevent cruelty and extend humane work in all ways. Any information desired regarding method of procedure, membership, etc., will be cheerfully given by any of its officers or the Secretary and Special Agent, C. N. Hayward, No. 6 Providence Road, Lansdowne.

MARTWICK WINS WALTON CUP

Track Captain-elect W. Lorimer Martwick has been awarded the Walton Prize Cup as the highest point-winner on the track team, the total number of units won being 52. This adds another count to his enviable record, which shows his election as captain to be well earned. In meets he scored a total of 35 points; two first places in the hundred, in high hurdles; two firsts, a second and fourth in the Middle States Meet; in low hurdles, a first, a second and second place in the Middle States.

WHO HAS IT—THE HAVERFORD BANNER?

If the alumnus or undergraduate or other person who last borrowed the big scarlet and black Haverford Banner (once presented to the College by the class of 1909, being about ten feet long, six wide, upper half scarlet and lower half black, with "Haverford" in large letters sewed on it)—if the aforesaid borrower will kindly return the same to Mr. Collins at the College, he will be doing a considerable favor, and also will supply a solution as to the mystery of the flag's whereabouts for the last month and a half.

Alfred Scattergood brought over the Philadelphia cohorts on Thursday, the 17th; and our boys were unkind enough, through the ministrations of "Woodie" Crosman and "Jim" Ellison, to give them a generous leather chase. H. W. Middleton was the one bright light in the St. Martin batting list. He punched out in a consistent fashion exactly half a century when Brinton bowled him on a good length ball that he tried to pull to eg.

The Haverford batting was permeated by the meteoric flight of Willard Crosman, who retired after slashing out a century, and Jim Ellison, who was finally bowled by Harris for 59. Captain Scattergood tried all of his team at the bowling except himself and the wicket keep, but when the two high scorers for Haverford had gotten their eye in, all bowling seemed alike—namely, meat for boundaries. COLLEGE GETS 126 IN HALF GAME vs. MERION A

On Tuesday, the fifteenth, Merion A had just retired the College side for the rather low score of 126, when rain came in a down-pouring torrent and put the lid on all further proceedings in the cricket line for that day. Captain Brinton carried his bat through from fourth man for a chanceless 42. Summary:

LAST MATCH A VICTORY

MERION B LOSES PHILADELPHIA CUP GAME TO COLLEGE FIRST ON SATURDAY, 101 TO 129

The final contest of the 1915 Cricket Week was a Philadelphia Cup match against Merion B at the cricket club grounds. True to their winning streak, our team got away with the game easily, a 24 by Captain Brinton, and a 38 by Captain-elect Ellison putting the match on the proverbial ice. J. Carey and Brinton as usual bowled steadily as the Rock of Gibraltar, and M. Crosman, when he relieved Jim, took 2 for 6 runs. There were no ducks for the Merion team, while the highest score was 17 for J. W. Sharp. The fielding of both sides was rather desultory, due to the State Championship Tennis Match between Armstrong and Johnson going on alongside the cricket game. This makes our standing in the cup matches as two won and one lost.

ALUMNI NOTE

Professor Allen C. Thomas, '65, entertained his class at dinner on Commencement evening, celebrating their fiftieth anniversary. James A. Chase, Arthur Haviland and Professor Thomas were present from the five members now living of the twelve graduated; the other two, Benjamin A. Vail and Caleb Cresson Wistar, being unable to attend. Christian C. Febiger, Joseph J. Pharo, Edward C. Roberts and Henry H. Swift are the living non-graduate members.

'89 WON OVER '90

Taking as their motto, "Getting old, but still in the ring," '89 and '90 fought an exciting battle of outdoor-indoor baseball on the campus, Alumni Day; '89 won, 19 to 17.

'95 held their twentieth reunion dinner in the College Dining Hall on Class Day evening.

'00 dined at the Merion Cricket Club on Class Day evening.

'05 celebrated their tenth anniversary at a dinner in the Cricket Pavilion on Saturday afternoon following Alumni Day.

COLLEGE ELEVEN DEFEATS ALUMNI 171-142

The attraction drawing the greatest number of spectators on Commencement afternoon was again the annual struggle between the college cricketers and the alumni, which the "undergrads" won this year by the score of 171 to 142.

The Alumni batted first and for a while it seemed that they were going to run up one of their good old totals of a couple of centuries, when A. G. Scattergood and T. Wistar made a long stand of 43 before Wistar was bowled by Captain Brinton, but from this point on the Alumni fell in quick succession before good length bowling until John K. Garrigues, captain of last year's eleven, made a brief stand of 22 on four boundaries and several other long drives.

"Woody" Crosman celebrated his return to the varsity line-up by harvesting high score for the day with a well-played 51, while the other college players who had excellent innings were Brinton, Wendell, Shipley and Kirk, the latter two retiring. Summary:

COMMUNICATION

New York, May 11, 1915.

THE HAVERFORD NEWS,
Haverford, Pa.

Dear Sirs:

Your statement in regard to Dr. Frank Crane of the "New York Globe" as secretary of the College Anti-Militaristic League is in error. The name of the college organization is the Collegiate Anti-Militaristic League and the officers are: President, Karl G. Karsten (Columbia); vice-president, Arthur Fisher (Harvard); secretary, John Temple Graves, Jr. (Princeton); treasurer, A. L. Trachtenberg (Yale).

Dr. Frank Crane is an editorial writer for the "New York Globe," who is interested in aiding student organizations and all other anti-militaristic organizations.

Very truly yours,
L. HOLLINGSWORTH WOOD.

SENIORS FLUNK FACULTY

The Seniors retrieved their defeat in cricket by walloping the Faculty on Class Day afternoon to the tune of 20 to 4. In spite of the one-sided score, the game was snappy and filled with interesting incidents. The Seniors opened up by scoring four runs in the first inning and after this tallied at will throughout the five innings played. Up until the third, Pitcher Farr had the Faculty at his mercy, but at this point they found their batting eyes and drove him from the mound. Professor Rittenhouse drew a pass and reached third on Dr. Spiers' hit through short. Dr. Gummere smashed the second ball pitched over second for two bases, scoring on Dr. Palmer's double to left. Dr. Palmer scored on an overthrow. The game was featured by the hitting of the Seniors and by the pitching of Champlin and the catching of Dr. Palmer for the Faculty. Dr. Gummere batted well and Dr. Spiers was fast on the bases.

through carefully from sixth place. J. Carey finally bowled his brother neatly for a valuable 14. And now came the climax of the game. Maxwell was set, and Wair, a professional, put in at last place for Germantown, played himself in, so when 6.30 struck, the score stood at 159 for our opponents with one wicket to fall. Harned and Brinton both agreed to finish, as the light was all right. Brinton bowled a maiden, but one of the balls took a crazy hop and went for two byes. Then Carey bowled an over allowing only one run, the telegraph reading 162. On the fifth ball of his next over, Brinton succeeded in making Maxwell reach over for a good length ball on the off, which the latter caught on his bat a little too soon, and spun it on the fly to Coleman at point, who clinched it and the game with one grab.
