

Customs Committee With Cary As Head Plans Strict Policy

Holzer, Duff, Morian, Brown, N. Evans To Be On Committee

Cary Is Coop Manager

S. G. Cary, '37, was chosen chairman of the Customs Committee at their first meeting Monday noon. Other members of the Committee, elected by the Students' Council at their meeting Thursday night, are C. E. Holzer, Jr., '37, W. W. Duff, Jr., C. H. Morian, Jr., '38, and F. G. Brown and N. H. Evans, both of '39. The members of the two upper classes all served on the committee during the passed year.

Next year's rhinies will not be left off as easy as this year's class was, according to the committee, although the methods of dealing with them will be much the same. Once again, slight violations will be punished by command appearance before Club Founders Steps will probably be taken to force rhinies to aid the managers of various activities throughout the year to a greater extent than this year. Cary summed their policy up when he said it would be similar to that of three years ago.

While there has been no definite action on rhinie equipment as yet, at least one variation has been planned for this year. Freshmen will again be furnished with dinks rather than the headgear of the past year. As usual, this equipment will be sold in the Gymnasium at the reception which is given the rhinies by the Students' Association.

Cary has been active in both athletic and non-athletic lines. He has been a varsity man in both track and soccer, and is manager of the basketball team. Off the athletic field, he has held class offices, being president for the latter half of his sophomore year. Cary is also a member of the retiring Customs Committee and manager of the Cooperative Store.

He was recently elected to Founders Club—the only one in the Junior Class as yet so honored.

Geology I Class Goes On Fri-Sun. Rock Trip With Bryn Mawr Group

In conjunction with the geology students of Bryn Mawr College, the students of Professor Dryden's Geology I class made a three day trip from Friday to Sunday about Easton and Delaware Water Gap.

From south to north in Eastern Pennsylvania, the rock starts pass from an old to a new formation. The expedition followed the Delaware River northward, inspecting the rock formations. The first night was spent at Stroudsburg. On the following day, they followed the Lehigh River, along which they had the opportunity of examining fossils encased in the rock.

S. R. Evans, '38, Named To Extension Committee

S. R. Evans, '38, recently elected secretary-treasurer of the Students' Association, has been named an additional member of the Student Extension Committee. This action was taken last week by vote of the committee itself, and announced by J. A. Lester, '37, chairman of the Committee.

The Student Extension Committee was revived during the winter to arouse interest in prospective students. In this line, they are planning to sponsor a tea dance on May 29, after the Interacademic Track Meet here. Invitations will be extended to preparatory schools, to spectators as well as participants.

Varsity Club Get Smith, Townsend

Will Address Banquet Of New Club At Whitehall Fri.

Judge Frank Smith and Mr. Stockton Townsend have definitely been engaged as chief speakers for the first annual Varsity Club banquet to be held Friday at 7 o'clock in the dining room of Whitehall on Lancaster Pike.

Judge Smith, a member of the Philadelphia Common Pleas bench, is the President of the Penn Athletic Club, and will tell some of the advantages of such an organization in the community. Mr. Townsend was for 15 years the president of the University of Pennsylvania's Varsity Club. This was one of the first clubs of its kind and he will discuss some of the problems they had to face. He is now acting as chairman of the Davis Cup Committee for the coming matches in Germantown.

President W. W. Comfort will make some introductory remarks for the evening, while Mr. W. F. Tiernan, Sr. will serve in the capacity of toastmaster.

At the last meeting of the local club three allied members were elected—H. T. Paxton, '36, H. C. Gulbrandsen, '37, and W. A. Polster, '37. They serve as representatives of other student organizations—the first two as members of the intramural committee and the last as head of the Press Bureau.

Program For Class Day; June 5, Remains Secret

Plans for the Class Day program on Friday, June 5, remain shrouded in deep secrecy. It has been divulged, however, that the exercises will be held on the lawn in front of the library at 2:30, and will be followed by refreshments in the library garden.

"The program's going to be different this year," said J. D. Purvis, Jr., '38, chairman of the Class Day Committee, which also includes G. B. Bookman, W. H. Loesche, Jr., W. A. Macan, III, J. S. Pugliese, and W. F. Tiernan, Jr., all of '36. "The Committee announced that it will not be responsible for split sides or anything else that might happen on Class Day. The program will start off with a bang and things will keep popping all afternoon," Purvis said.

Annoyed Firemen And Drenched Students Results Of Thurs. Fire

Lack Of Cooperation Is Outstanding Feature Of Blaze; Grandstand Suffers Little Damage; Carson "Incarsonated"

Fire in the southeast corner of the grandstand on Walton Field Thursday night brought the Lower Merion Fire Company, the Lower Merion police and a general spree to the Haverford Campus shortly after nine o'clock. At the end of the evening the net results included an annoyed set of firemen, a water soaked crowd, and a junior locked by the police in a Lower Merion ambulance which was minus gasoline-tank cap, rear reflector, radiator cap, and the keys to get him out.

First discovered and fought by night watchman "Happy," the fire attracted practically the entire college and neighborhood. President Comfort quickly turned in the alarm and informed a skeptical Center Barclay by phone. When an excited college reached the scene, to the ringing of Founders bell, Lower Merion fire trucks had already run across tennis courts, Walton Field, and had run a hose of water which soon brought the blaze under control.

The Cap and Bells banquet in the Alumni Room, nearly over, was disrupted by the news. Two fire trucks roared up in front of Founders, one going each way around the circle and meeting head on. The crowd cheered each time the firemen, fighting the flame which was within the dry, shingled outside wall of the stand, ripped off shingles disclosing new flames.

Annoyed firemen sprinkled the cheering, boozing crowd at regular intervals, until on one occasion several juniors got a shot of fire-hose water at too close range. "Go easy with the water," shouted one, and in a moment was fighting with a fireman. The upshot was the sudden incarceration of J. D. Carson, '37, in the Lower Merion ambulance by patrolman Burton, single representative of the law. "Carson's incarcerated," remarked Graham Kohrer, '35, former Crow's Nester, attending the Cap and Bells banquet.

Several hundred persons milled around the ambulance after the fire which inflicted relatively slight damage to the stand, harassing the officer, removing accessories from the car, and peering in at the innocent prisoner, who was not released because he was locked in and the key was missing. When the officer got in to drive away, the crowd nearly pushed over the ambulance.

One of the fire marshals, driving past the power house, in his model T, whacked into an ash can and

"Bird In Hand" Is Chosen Rodman, '37 Given Last Times Store Comm. Head

Performances At West Chester And Phila. Called Best

"Bird in Hand" was performed for the third time Friday night for the benefit of the Alumni Association of the Philadelphia Normal School by the same cast which gave the annual Spring performance here two weeks ago. The play was given in the auditorium of the Philadelphia Girls' High School.

It was the best performance given this year, according to P. P. Rodman, new manager of Cap and Bells, and was well received by the audience. The Cap and Bells' own set was used on this occasion.

The Drinkwater play was again given Saturday night under the auspices of the Chester County League of Women Voters at the New Century Club, West Chester, Pa., before an audience of two hundred. The business board stated that it was one of the most financially successful of the four performances, while the officers of the League are quoted as having enjoyed this performance more than that of any play given there in recent years.

New officers of Cap and Bells were elected Thursday night. P. P. Rodman, '37, was promoted from assistant manager to manager. The assistant managers were taken over by C. R. Ebersol, '38.

Ebersol was chairman of the Sophomore-Senior Dance Committee and on the Varsity Soccer team. At present he is a news editor of the News, member of the Press Bureau, is on the Varsity baseball team, Jayvee basketball team, and is a member of the Glee Club.

CLASS SCHEDULES DUE FRI.

All class schedules for the first semester, 1936-'37, must be in the hands of Oscar M. Chase, Registrar, by supper-time Friday, May 22. Failure to do so will result in a fine of five dollars.

NO NEWS TILL JUNE 6

Due to examinations there will be no issue of the News until Commencement Day, June 6.

67 To Get Degrees At Commencement Exercises June 6

Make Plans For Annual Senior Banquet, To Be Held 8 A. M.

Address By Dr. Duggan

Plans for Commencement Day which is to be held Saturday, June 6, are well under way. Special invitations are to be given to members of the Senior Class to be sent to their friends and relatives. Invitations, however, are not necessary for admittance to the commencement exercises which are to be held in Roberts Hall at 11 o'clock.

There will be a breakfast held for the seniors at 8 o'clock. They will eat in a group separated from the rest of the college. Mr. Oscar Chase and Deans MacIntosh and Brown will also be invited to the breakfast.

An introductory address will be given at the commencement exercises by President W. W. Comfort. Honors will then be awarded for the year and winners of nine prizes will also be announced. The sixty-two members of the graduating class, following this, will receive their A. B. and S. B. degrees. Five A. M. and six M. D. degrees will then be awarded to post graduate students. Stephen P. Duggan, professor of Political Science at the College of the City of New York, will deliver the commencement address.

Dr. Duggan holds a B. S. and a M. S. degree from C. C. N. Y., M. A. and Ph. D. from Columbia University, LL. D. from Rollins College and a Litt. D. from San Marcos University, Peru. At present

Annual Orchard Festival Given Sunday; 100 See Scene In "Wilhelm Tell"

More than 100 attended the annual Spring festival held Sunday afternoon in the orchard, when Haverford students and professors presented in German the apple-shooting scene from Schiller's "Wilhelm Tell." Bryn Mawr students participated in the procession and singing of German songs.

Mrs. Frank W. Fetter sang a solo just before the play, which featured the "shooting" of the apple from the head of Virginia Rath of Swarthmore by Professor Harry A. Pfund, at the "order" of J. E. Goldmark, '38. A horse, ridden by the latter, added a realistic touch to the scene.

The audience sang two German songs and then was served refreshments of ice cream and cakes by the Faculty Women's Club, under whose auspices the annual festival takes place. This year's chairman has been Mrs. William B. Melndrum.

Members of the Freshman Reception Committee, named by J. A. Lester, '37, President of the Students' Association, during the previous week, are L. B. Seely, '37, S. R. Evans, '38, and H. R. Taylor, '38.

The committee is in charge of the reception for incoming freshmen, annually held in the Gymnasium, at which the Honor System is explained. This year, Professor Richard M. Sutton was the speaker. The chairman of the Customs Committee explains the rhinie regulations, and then rhinie equipment is handed out.

Cap And Bells Club Elects P. Rodman To Vice-Presidency

Laverty, '17, Reelected President, Brown Is Treasurer

Are 20 New Members

P. P. Rodman, '37, was elected to succeed W. E. Sheppard, III, '36, as vice-president of the Cap and Bells Club for the coming year at the annual business meeting of the society held in the Union Thursday night. At the same time Alexander Laverty, '17, was reelected President and H. Tattall Brown, Jr., '22, and John C. Lober, '27, were chosen to continue their service as treasurer and secretary respectively.

In addition to his office of vice-president, Rodman was elected business manager of dramatics, a position filled this year by A. W. Stokes, '36. At the business meeting which preceded the annual banquet in the Alumni Room, twenty new members were elected to the Club. President Laverty read his report in which he commended managers Sheppard and L. T. Lodge, Jr., '36, for their work in bringing the Club finances the closest to the "black" in ten years. He also complimented the two girls, Misses Leopold and Nice for their capable performances in the Spring Play.

Though Stokes was unable to present a finished financial report of the plays, he stated that seventy-three dollars had been made on the Fall Play and that about $150 was expected on "Bird in Hand," which was performed for the last times Friday and Saturday. Laverty then announced the decision of the executive committee to install new lighting fixtures on the stage of Roberts Hall. The nominating committee, made up of Professor A. Jardine Williamson, '23, Ralph Mellor, '09, and Sheppard, presented their list of nominees. In addition to those already mentioned, M. C. Guthrie, Jr., '37, was chosen assistant secretary and W. A. Polster, '37, assistant treasurer. G. Norris, Jr., '37, was elected stage manager and W. E. Prindle, Jr., his assistant.

Members of the executive committee which was selected by the club are: Ralph Mellor, '09, William N. Maier, '31, V. Putnam Morgan, '35, Graham Rohrer, '35, Norris, W. H. Clark, Jr., '38, and W. H. Reeves, Jr., '38. The membership committee is composed of Professor Richard M. Sutton, '22, chairman, Howard Comfort, '24, Lodge, H. C. Gubrandsen and C. E. Wilbur, both of '37. Laverty appointed Clark as chairman of the Play Committee and reappointed Professor Williamson head of the Graduate Managers Committee.

Forty-six attended the banquet in the Alumni Room of Founders at 7 o'clock. Laverty greeted the new members of the Club and welcomed back Elliot Field, '97, to his old position of toastmaster which he was forced to miss last year. He then called upon Sheppard, a retiring vice-president, who thanked Professor Williamson for the work he had done this year.

Rodman, Lober and Mr. William P. Bentz, director of the Glee Club, were asked to speak. Lober expressed his belief that the big thing in the Cap and Bells was that it allowed Alumni to keep contacts with the student body. Mr. Bentz praised the work of the managers and the leadership of J. S. Pugliese, '36, who was also commended by Dr. Field for his work with the freshmen in teaching them the college songs. When everybody rushed out to the fire at Walton Field, the meeting was abruptly and officially adjourned.

Six seniors, G. B. Bookman, W. R. Brown, W. A. Crawford, J. B. Diehl, M. F. Glessner, Jr., and D. P. McCune, III, were elected. The juniors who were admitted membership in the Club are C. J. Allen, Jr., W. H. Bond, R. L. Greif, Gubrandsen, E. L. Hawkins, Jr., J. A. Lester, Jr., M. A. Linton, Jr., Norris, F. E. Nulsen, Polster, Wilbur, and J. W. Worral, Jr. Reeves and Prindle were the only sophomores elected, while William M. Dugdale, ex-'37, was also chosen.

A. Kane Chosen Best All-Round In Annual News Questionnaire

Also Named Most Popular And Handsomest; Wolf To Be Most Successful; Tiernan Again Voted Best Athlete

In the 1936 News Poll, which equalled the record number of 230 returns established last year, A. R. Kane, Jr., '36, received 80 votes to win the title of best all-around undergraduate, 139 for the most popular and 46 for handsomest. In taking all three titles, Kane set a record this year. W. F. Tiernan, Jr., '36, was voted second in each case. For best all-around Tiernan received 48 votes, for most popular, 17, and for handsomest, 15. Third place in the latter was a tie between D. W. Brous, '36, and C. B. Wilson, '38. Evidently the North Barclayans were anxious to make a place on the questionnaire results.

With the margin of 178 votes more than his nearest competitor, Tiernan was selected the best athlete. Last year in winning the same title for the third time Tiernan's margin was 170 to this year's Kane was second and C. E. Holzer, Jr., '37, third. Milton F. Glessner, Jr., '36, was selected as the best dressed. He received 45 votes to top his nearest rival W. E. Sheppard, II, '36, by 23 votes. J. W. Pearce, Jr., '36, was third. As was the case last year, many of the voters evaded the question on who would be the greatest success in later life. But for the second year, R. B. Wolf, '36, was selected with 30 votes, a margin of 11 over R. E. Lewis, '36. Kane and F. C. Evans, '36, tied for third with 12 votes each.

Chem. Dept. Best

Last year's only freshman waiter, J. L. Rich, who tied for third in the '35, poll was selected the best waiter this year. Due to the lack of discrimination between "Lous" who received votes for the best janitor, it was impossible to determine which received first place. Since the combined votes tallied 85, the decision might be termed a tie because second highest was Jules with 33 votes, not half of 85.

For the fifth consecutive year, the Chemistry Department was voted the finest in the College. History and English were second and third respectively. Professor William E. Lunt, receiving 100 votes, was elected the best professor. Second and third were Professors William B. Meldrum and William A. Reitzel, making these results a repetition of last year's poll.

History I and Economics I were named the two courses every student should take, while History 6, Physics 2, and English 1 were close behind. Freshman English and Biblical Literature 4b attained the questionable honor of first place in the two courses named as non-essential. Sociology I, Economics I, Government I, and Public Speaking were not far behind the leaders.

History 6 outdistanced its relative, History 1, by 13 votes to take the position of best course in the curriculum. Chemistry 2 was third. Freshman English has been chosen in the duldest course. Many indicated Public Speaking additionally and 19 stated the course definitely. Economics 1 was runner-up for honors in this question with Sociology third. History 1 was named the hardest. It received 64 votes to win over Physics 2, last year's first place winner.

Approve Comprehensives

Again the student body rates Phi Beta Kappa as the honor which would be cherished most. 48 named Spoon Man and 16 Founders Club to place these honors second and third. Others in descending order are, President of Students' Association, President of Class, Rhodes Scholarship and several votes were cast for "diploma." The most important extra curricular activity selected was athletics. Second was the News.

148 approve of the system of comprehensives as opposed to 80 (just 7 short of the number of seniors) who do not. It is the belief of 131 that the menu has improved since the News Poll but there are 82 who are yet to be satisfied. 66 stated that they did know the rule concerning drinking off the campus but there are 156 who are in the dark on this subject. Out of the 214 who voted on the drinking policy question, 27 desired more strict rules, 71 were for more lax rules and 116 prefer the present system. 137 confessed that they do not attend outside lectures given during the College year.

In the section classed as marriage the majority gave 25 as the age when it is best for a man to marry and 22 for women. On all of the questionnaires filled out, the woman's age was placed at least two years younger than the man's. The majority believed that it is necessary to have an income of $2,000 at the time of marriage and the majority expect to be getting that income when they are married. For the third consecutive year the outstanding order given to the attributes desired in the woman to be married was first character; second, personality; third, health, and fourth, beauty.

In regard to color of hair preference the majority had none. A close second was a vote of 78 for brunettes, disproving that old theory, blondes fell to third place,

Sophomores Elect Whittier President At Meeting Friday

Taylor And Reagan To Be Vice-President And Secretary

Ramsey Is Treasurer

Returns from the sophomore elections which were held last week revealed that W. Whittier was chosen to serve as president for the first half of the junior year of the class of '38. The other officers are H. R. Taylor, vice-president, L. B. Reagan, secretary, and F. M. Ramsey, Jr., treasurer.

Whittier, who has just completed a term as class secretary, was also assistant manager of the basketball team and a member of the soccer team during the past season.

Taylor has also been an officer, having served as president and vice-president respectively for the two terms of the sophomore year. In the field of athletics, he has played on both the soccer and baseball teams.

The offices held by Reagan include those of vice-president and secretary. He was a member of the football, basketball and track squads, in addition to being an assistant manager of the tennis team of this season.

Ramsey, the new treasurer, played guard on the football team last fall and on the squash team. This spring, he has been at number one position on the jayvee tennis team.

The executive committee is to be composed of T. A. Benham, R. M. Bird, and C. E. Morian, Jr. Benham is holding the position for the second term. Bird, who was a member of the Freshman-Junior Dance Committee last year, was also assistant manager of the football team. Morian's activities have included membership on the Customs Committee, the track and football teams, and assistant manager of basketball.

Soc. 2b Class Pays Visit To Phila. Juvenile Court In Last Of Field Trips

About twenty members of the Sociology 2b class in Modern Social Problems visited the Philadelphia Juvenile Court Friday in the last of a series of four field trips under the direction of Professor Frank D. Watson.

Only a limited number of students were allowed to attend the sessions at one time. Most of the cases which came up, it was observed, were robberies by gangs of boys. The judge treated each individual separately, letting some off on probation and sending others to various kinds of reform schools. The other trips that have been taken during the year have also dealt with phases of the problem of underprivileged children. The first was to the Vineland Training School for the Feeble-Minded, the institution which traced the history of the famous "Kalikak" family.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO ALUMNI

Summer Institute To Discuss Peace

Swarthmore Host To Session From June 22 To July 3

Organized about the central theme of "The Problem of Peaceful Change," an institute of international relations will be held at Swarthmore College, June 22 to July 3, under the auspices of the American Friends Service Committee and the Friends Peace Committee of the Philadelphia Yearly Meetings.

Similar in some ways to the summer institute here last year, its purpose is to "raise in challenging from the problems of peaceful change; to equip those interested in promoting peace between nations with a knowledge of history and current development, an understanding of economic relations between nations, the foundation spiritual concern for peace, and to help them discover methods of making their concern effective."

Dr. Herbert F. Fraser, Professor of Economics at Swarthmore, is dean of the institute which is open to everyone interested in promoting peace and willing to do some serious work for peace. Courses have been planned particularly for teachers, for students, for ministers and religious workers and for members of labor organizations.

The fees for the two week session are thirty-five dollars for board, lodging and tuition and ten dollars tuition for day students, who may get individual meals at the College for moderate prices. Among those courses offered is "World Organization for Peaceful Change" which will be given by Pierre de Lanux, who, for ten years, was the director of the Paris office of the League of Nations. Further information concerning the institute may be secured by writing Richard R. Wood, 304 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

Brinton, '81, Director Of F. H. A., Died May 7

Announcement has been received of the death of Walter Brinton, '81, at his home in Philadelphia, on May 7. He was one of the directors of the Friends Historical Association and was a member of several engineering societies, among them the Engineers' Club of Philadelphia.

While at Haverford, where he entered the Junior Class in 1879, he was on the varsity football team and was an Associate Editor of the Haverfordian. Married in 1891 to Elizabeth W. Smedley, he was the father of W. Carroll Brinton, '15, who died in France in 1918 while engaged in the reconstruction there.

Papers Read To Group In Roberts Hall On Saturday

With exhibits of Quaker Books and Manuscripts and Pottery from Beth Shemesh and with the reading of three historical papers, the College entertained the Friends Historical Association Saturday afternoon. This was the annual summer meeting of the organization which was founded in 1873 to collect and arouse interest in Quaker relics and antiques.

The meeting was opened by President W. W. Comfort, then Professor William A. Reitzel read a paper on the "Literary Material in the Roberts Collection." This was followed by Professor Edward D. Snyder's paper, "Some Whittier Manuscripts in the Roberts Collection," and Mr. Arthur J. Mekeel's, "Glimpses into Haverford Quakeriana."

President Comfort was chosen President of this Association last fall, while Anna B. Hewitt of the College has for a long time been secretary. The board includes many other Haverfordians. One of their most important functions is the publishing of a semi-annual Bulletin which describes the progress of their work and contains papers of interest.

Dr. James A. Babbitt, M. A., '96, Recalls Haverford Associations

Noted Physician In Recent Interview Reveals Valued Contacts Established Here; Served College 35 Years; Now Prof. Emeritus

Enumerating the outstanding features of his association with Haverford, Dr. James A. Babbitt, in a recent interview, revealed his attachment to the College which he served in various capacities for thirty-five years.

Dr. Babbitt, a graduate of Yale, '93, came to Haverford in 1893 as director of physical and athletic work, assistant to Professor Francis E. Gummere in theme correcting and assistant to President Isaac Sharpless in executive care of undergraduates. After 35 years of service, during which time he served as professor of Hygiene and Physical Education and College physician, he retired in 1928, being created professor emeritus.

"From all my years of association with Haverford, one thing which was a source of great pleasure to me," stated Dr. Babbitt, "was my intimate association with such men as President Sharpless, Frank Morley, Frances Gummere, Lyman Beecher Hall, Ernest Brown and Rufus Jones, not to mention the more recent men."

He also cited the close relationship which he enjoyed once a month with twelve of the outstanding undergraduate athletes. This group might be called the forerunner of the present Varsity Club. Some of the members were Deans H. Tatnall Brown, Archibald MacIntosh and Dr. Herbert W. Taylor.

"A third feature of my Haverford life," he continued, "was the development of the College Health Department, including the construction of the present Gymnasium and the organization of the Morris Infirmary."

Among other associations with Haverford, Dr. Babbitt recalls with pleasure the "delightful experience of heading a Haverford unit in relief work in France during the War" and the "developing of special preparatory work for pre-medical men at Haverford."

After graduating from Yale, Dr. Babbitt came to Haverford, receiving his Master's degree in 1896. Two years later, while still connected with College, he obtained his M. D. from the University of Pennsylvania.

Although he has done a good deal of work in athletics and the training of teams, Dr. Babbitt is noted as an outstanding man in his chosen field of medicine, otolaryngology, or ear, nose, and throat work.

His accomplishments in this field include the professorship, emeritus, of Clinical Otolaryngology of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School, secretary of the American Laryngological Association, a body of 100 men chosen for their superiority in the field, and membership in several other medical societies.

Dr. Babbitt is a member of the staffs of the University, Graduate, Lankenau and Mary Drexel Hospitals. He is a consultant and on the courtesy staff of several other hospitals also. Besides his hospital work Dr. Babbitt maintains a private practice at 1912 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, where Dr. Herbert K. Ensworth, '29, is associated with him.

In speaking to the prospective medical students Dr. Babbitt urged

Felix Morley, '15, Is Pulitzer Winner

Divides Annual Award For Best Editorial Writing In 1935

Felix M. Morley, '15, editor of the Washington Post, was one of the Pulitzer Prize winners for 1935, dividing the prize for the best editorial writing, with George B. Parker, editor-in-chief of the Scripps-Howard newspapers. Besides his position on the Post, Mr. Morley is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and the Federal Advisory Council of the United States Employment Service. He is also a fellow of the Royal Economics Society of Great Britain.

He was appointed editor of the Post three years ago after gaining a reputation as a student of international affairs. Following his graduation from Haverford, he served a year in northern France with an ambulance unit of the British Red Cross and then returned to this country to begin his newspaper work as a reporter on the staff of the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

In 1919 he went to Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar and spent several years studying international affairs. From 1922 to 1928 he was a member of the Editorial Staff of the Baltimore Sun and in 1928 he received a Guggenheim Fellowship. In 1933 he was asked to take charge of the editorial page of the Post by the new owner, Eugene Meyer.

Associated Collegiate Press -1934 Collegiate Digest 1935 - HAVERFORD

College Spirit. In 1911 the College Weekly, precursor of the News, published a letter from "a prominent younger alumnus," a part of which is here reprinted:

"As a member of the first Soccer team at Haverford, I am greatly disappointed not only in the way Soccer is played, but the general attitude of 'self-satisfiedness' as shown by the spirit displayed in all branches of sport at Haverford. I do not believe that we should take part in athletic sports simply to win games, but I do think that in any and every walk of life success is necessary.

"The sooner that the College gets back to the old idea that to represent Haverford on any first eleven team is an honor not to be trifled with... the sooner we will bring the spirit of today up to what it was in days gone by."

The trouble in 1936 lies not with the players themselves but with the rest of the student body; the general complaint about lack of spirit though, has a familiar ring. Probably the contempt in which many undergraduates hold athletics is the result of their marked inferiority in these lines: the News is interested not so much in the cause as in the cure.

The Varsity Club hopes to revive the much-discredited "college spirit." Next year's Cheer Leaders will be held more directly responsible by the Student Council for pep rallies and send-offs for teams. The Extension Committee is already attacking the root of the evil by going after a better class of Freshmen. Perhaps a well-kept organization and concerted action can succeed where occasional speeches and News editorials in the past have failed, and the bringing of "the spirit of today up to what it was in days gone by" will become a reality.

After a floundering start the past Spring provided perfect athletic weather. Alumni Day, Junior Day and the Swarthmore baseball game, falling on successive week-ends, all enjoyed smiling skies and balmy breezes.

Smoke-Eaters. Thursday night's now-famous fire has been made the occasion for considerable criticism of the undergraduate attitude toward law and order, as represented by Lower Merion township's Fire and Police departments. Perhaps the student attitude toward constituted authority is not overly respectful, but the point which the News wants to make is that this was not a fair test. To call the irresponsible bunch of untrained lads who make up the Volunteer Fire Company the "law" is stretching the definition of the word a little.

When the Hose and Wagon boys, in their eagerness to reach a second-rate blaze, find it necessary to drive fire engines across tennis courts not necessarily in their paths; when they can take a few moments off from sprinkling the flames to sprinkle the onlookers, their devotion to duty is not noticeably whole-hearted.

As Dr. Lunt would say, it was just a minor skirmish between town and gown; certainly not a real demonstration against the law.

THE CROW'S NEST

W. H. Bond, '37.

Fire. We hope you will forgive us if our own account of the Haverford conflagration should seem a bit biased. We feel rather strongly on the subject, as we arrived upon the scene just in time to share in the general soaking which was so generously handed out. Having got there rather late, we feel as well qualified as most reporters to give an eye-witness description of the festivities. This is our account:

On Thursday evening last, a joint sociable was held by the Haverford College Students' Association and the Lower Merion Volunteer Fire Department. (The Lower Merion Police Force also ran.) At about 9:05 P. M. the Volunteers arrived at the college in special cars, and asked the location of the tennis courts, over which they promptly ran as soon as they got their bearings. After they had made a number of large ruts in the smooth green lawn, a mass meeting was called in the middle of Walton Field, and a bonfire was lit in one corner of the Grandstand to illuminate the scene. When this amusement began to pall, the fire was extinguished and the crowd was thoroughly wet down to prevent flying sparks from starting up another blaze.

True to the campus motto, "Never a dull moment," the crowd's attention was caught and held at this point by a number of impromptu pugilistic matches which were interrupted only by the intervention of the law, who took one of the principals into custody on the grounds that no amusement permit had been issued by the State to license the exhibition. Several thrifty students took advantage of the momentary diversion to appropriate a number of chromium-plated automobile accessories with a view to disposing of them later at a profit. After a short time, however, the dust of battle cleared away, the Volunteers departed (carefully leaving another set of ruts behind them), and the crowd returned home, reeking faintly of wood-smoke. That is our story, and we'll stick to it.

Contrib. Bashful Mr. Anon left this little gem on our desk last week, and we pass it on herewith.

Oh tell, Felicia, doth the gentle lark At matin spread her dewy wings and soar When sun to earth hath sent awak'ning spark And light hath banished darkness evermore? When night's dark cloak hath covered o'er the sun Do grasses lush and green still wave their heads? Do bubbling freshets still by mosses run? Do spiders weave their fairy, silken threads? Do elfin bands at dusk await the dawn? Oh sweet Felicia, answer me, pray— Another whiskey and I'll start to croon! Oh hell, let's pay the check and go away!

STUDENT OPINION

R. M. Clayton, '37.

Wanted—Better Republican Speeches. It is easy to poke fun at the New Deal. No joke is unavailing if it has the New Deal as its target. Even the jullest person can establish a reputation for wit if his attempts at humor satirize the brain trust, "alphabet soup," or government spending. Humor is especially effective in drawing into the right-wing camp persons who have little interest in the affairs of government, but even those who normally give serious thought to political problems are likely to jump on the reactionary bandwagon when they see the Democratic administration ridiculed.

But though humor is a powerful weapon, it loses its usefulness in long political speeches. If it were possible for the speaker to confine his talk to anti-Roosevelt jokes, his effectiveness would be at a maximum. When it is necessary to speak for a half-hour or more, he must use some serious constructive arguments, and these are the weakest weapons of the conservatives. In any long discussion, the inconsistencies in the opposition to the New Deal come to the surface.

Ex-President Hoover has tried hard to develop a humorous and lively style. "Profligacy, poppycock, patronage, politics and power... poppycock, privilege, pork-barrel, panaceas, and poverty"—this characterization of the New Deal is his latest creation.

When his stock of these platitudes is exhausted, he must fill in the gaps with serious arguments, and here his attack on the administration falters. He demands a return of "morals" into the government and cites the devaluation of the dollar as an example of financial dishonor. But does he forget the conduct of his own administration when, after calling on the country to have faith in the banking system, he refused to those who lost their savings by following his advice?

Hoover again ignores his past record when he states that governmental policy should be "tested in terms of human beings" rather than by cold economic theory. How much concern did he have for human beings during his term of office? While pouring federal credit into banks and railroads, he resisted federal relief expenditures. The first relief appropriation was forced on him by liberals in Congress. Did Hoover consider human beings when he sent the U. S. Army against the bonus marchers? "Restore foreign trade," Hoover demands. But the greatest barrier to trade is the Smoot-Hawley tariff which he signed five years ago. The New Deal has attempted to break this wall in the face of Republican opposition.

Republicans have yet to solve the problem of making campaign speeches which succeed in concealing their inconsistencies.

MUSIC

This Friday and Saturday the twenty-ninth festival of the Bach Choir of Bethlehem, Pa., will be presented in the Packer Memorial Church of Lehigh University. It will be directed by Bruce Carey, successor of the late Dr. J. Fred Wolfe, and the soloists will be Louise Lerch and Charlotte Lucile Bond, sopranos, Rose Hampton, alto, Dan Gridley, tenor, and Keith Falkner, bass. Fifty-three members of the Philadelphia Orchestra and Dr. T. Edgar Shields at the organ will furnish the accompaniment. The programme on Friday afternoon consists of two cantatas, "Ye Shall be Weeping" and "For the Righteous," and a Choral group of five arrangements made by Johann Sebastian Bach. In the evening "Jesus My Beloved Savior," "Come and Let us Go up to Jerusalem," and the Magnificat will be presented. On Saturday afternoon the great Mass in B minor will be sung. This festival perhaps marks the highest spot in this year's musical activities in the true and noble interpretation of Bach in place of sensationalism, these two days devoted to the master's works will be most worth while.

On Friday and Saturday nights we will have the opportunity of hearing the little played Gilbert and Sullivan Light Opera Company Limited." It was the last opera written by Gilbert and Sullivan and has not been given in Philadelphia since 1894. Among the members of the Savoy Opera Company who will appear in it will be Wilbur Evans, William Swagze, Marjorie Snowden, James Montgomery, and Richard Bogart.

THEATRE

Cave Man vs. Heiress

Anybody want to marry an heiress? Fine. I thought as such, Well, here's the secret. First you have to be a virile, forthright American (of the red-white-and-blue variety), with a sabre-tooth wit and an inclination to talk back to the city editor. Then you have to run across a very, very rich girl who, in the authoritative words of Miss Bette Davis, is "sick of being pawed by the royal backwash of Europe." The rest is easy. You decorate a few hazy bodies with black eyes, show a wholesome contempt for riches, and then you and the girl live happily and humbly ever after. Humbly, because you prefer a mortgage-decked shanty to the most magnificent villa imaginable.

That, at least, is the formula according to "Gold Diggers of 1935," the most recent vehicle for Bette Davis and George Brent, whom you may recall as a pretty smart team in "Front Page Lady." It is a formula which is just dandy for Mr. Brent but which owing, to certain peculiar circumstances in his case, probably worked better for him than it would for you. I cannot mention those circumstances because though personally I am a least-chapter-reader and take delight in destroying all dramatic suspense by discovering endings before I come to them, I know that most people aren't so peculiar. But I will say that Miss Davis is an extraordinary heiress, and before you undertake to marry her, be sure with any of her kind, you'd best hire a detective.

New Profs Grads Of Stanford, Penn, Hawaii, Haverford

Dr. Drake Will Succeed Late Prof. Kelsey As Collections Curator

Kelly Has Hav'f'd S. B.

Four new members of the faculty will assume their professorships next fall. The newcomers are Thomas C. Drake, Thomas R. Kelly, Frank Lindsay and Edward D. Carter, and their departments, respectively, are History, Philosophy, French and Government.

Dr. Drake has been appointed to succeed the late Rayner W. Kelsey as curator of the Quaker Collections, and will also conduct the courses recently given by Arthur J. Mekeel, who will study for his Ph. D. degree at Harvard. Drake graduated from Stanford University in 1928 with a B. A. degree, receiving an M. A. at Michigan University in 1930. In 1933 he received his Ph. D. at Yale, where he was later an instructor of History. He also held a similar office at the University of Minnesota.

Lindsay From Haverford

Professor Kelly, who is at present teaching Philosophy at the University of Hawaii, was graduated from Wilmington College as Bachelor of Science in 1913. The same year he entered Haverford where he received a similar degree in 1914. In 1919 he received the degree of Bachelor of Divinity at the Hartford Theological Seminary. Previously, he was an instructor at Pickering College in Ontario.

Professor Carter, who will lecture in Government during the absence of Professor John G. Herndon, Jr., has been a member of the faculty of the University of Pennsylvania for the last eight years. He was one of the authors of "Government and Business," which was used as a text book here last year. He has also been commissioned several times to study the Pennsylvania government.

Mr. Lindsay graduated from Haverford in 1930 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. He studied at Columbia University for his doctor's degree, and has since been teaching at Oak Lane Country Day School. He will teach French and Spanish in the absence of Mr. Melchior.

Annoyed Firemen, Drenched Students

temporarily put his car out of commission. The fire marshal stated that the fire was probably of incendiary origin. The theory that a cigarette thrown away at the freshman track meet the day before might have caused the blaze was supported by the statement of "Happy" that the fire started inside the stand where he had seen a great deal of paper and old leaves. The tin floor which probably kept the fire from spreading is covered with tar.

Dean Henry Tatnall Brown was given the ambulance keys indirectly, and Friday morning received other car parts which were returned by him. Lower Merion police were so worked up about the treatment of their car that the officer who had seized Carson had no charge to state against him.

Feud With Firemen

Said patrolman Burton of Haverford students. "If they had half as much sense as they have now they would be half-witted." Authorities at Lower Merion pointed out sternly that with the door locked it would have been difficult to render first aid.

Lieutenant Van der Veer of the Lower Merion police station regretted that he had sent only one officer up to College. "I would shoot every one of them," was his remark on the students. "Who in particular?" he was asked. "I'd shoot anybody."

The Lower Merion Volunteers' traditional feud with Haverford students had an outbreak in 1932 when students turned in a false alarm after the company had been fighting a lumber-yard blaze all day. Firemen turned a hose on students, students turned a hose on firemen, and a truck was overturned before the spree was over.

Leads Glee Club

W. H. BOND, '37

Newly elected Leader of the Glee Club who succeeds J. S. Pugliese, '36.

Kimber Pres., Lawyer Sec. Of Engineers' Club

Members of the Engineering Club have elected W. L. Kimber, '37, president, and J. J. Lawser, '37, secretary of that group for the coming year. Elections were held Saturday afternoon.

Kimber was president of his class during the first half of his sophomore year. He is also Business Manager of the Haverfordian and a member of the Glee Club. Lawser has been on the J. V. football team.

6 Haverfordians Have Roles In Light Opera

Several Haverfordians will take part in the forthcoming annual production of the Savoy Company, local Gilbert and Sullivan amateur organization. They are J. S. Williams, '20; G. F. Rorer, '29; W. R. Blair, Jr., and W. C. Hanna, both of '30; J. P. Sargent, '32; K. E. Paul, ex-'35.

This year's production will be "Utopia, Limited, or the Flowers of Progress" and will be given at the Academy of Music on May 22 and 23. Except for a performance in New York some thirty years ago by the D'Oyly Carte Company, this will be the first production of that opera in America.

"Trojan Women" At Cedar Crest June 4-5

Culminating a year's work in dramatic activities, Cedar Crest College, Allentown, will present Europe's "Trojan Women" Friday and Saturday, June 4 and 5, in the outdoor theatre before 2000 persons.

It will be the twelfth annual Greek play to be given Commencement Week at Cedar Crest. Pauline Schadt Koehler, music department head, has composed all the music for the choral odes, while the dance patterns for these odes are the creation of Dorothy K. Lundis, head of the department of physical education. Haverford students are invitee. The performances begin at 8:30 P. M., Daylight Saving Time.

W. H. Bond Elected Glee Club Leader, Replacing Pugliese

Nulsen, Hawkins Made New Business And Personnel Mgrs.

Telling Ass't. Bus. Mgr.

With the election of other officers of the Cap and Bells at their annual banquet and business meeting Thursday night, W. H. Bond, '37, was selected leader of the Glee Club for the year, 1936-37. E. L. Hawkins, Jr., '37, succeeds H. T. Lodge, Jr., '36, as personnel manager, and F. E. Nulsen, '37, succeeds W. E. Sheppard, III, '36, as business manager of the Club.

Replacing J. S. Pugliese, '36, Bond qualified for his selection through three years service in the bass section of the Club. He is now chief clerk in the Co-op, assistant manager of baseball and a member of the Haverfordian and News boards. Recently he served on the Junior Prom committee. In retiring his position as leader, Pugliese stated that his work with the Club "had been a great experience."

Norsworthy Gets Hawkins' Post

L. F. Norsworthy, '38, was elected to the position vacated through Hawkins' advancement, and I. Telling, Jr., '38, will succeed Nulsen as

Roy Randall's Team Decisively Defeats Swarthmore

Ham Welbourn Pitches Brilliant Game, Striking Out Nine Hitters

Ham Strikes Out 3 Garnet Batters With Bases Loaded; Bill Tiernan Leads Local Batters; Wingerd Team Batting Champ With .377

Playing before an enthusiastic crowd the Haverford baseball team decisively trounced Swarthmore, who had previously defeated Penn and Army, by a 9-2 score. Ham Welbourn won his fourth victory of the season as he limited the visitors to five hits, the smallest number yielded by a Haverford pitcher to a Garnet nine in over a decade.

The victory concluded the baseball season, giving the team a record of five wins and nine defeats, for a record of .357. The success of the team in overcrowding the Garnet was a fine tribute to Coach Randall, for a Randall-coached baseball team has yet to lose to Swarthmore.

Welbourne Effective

Welbourne pitched good enough ball to earn a shutout, giving up five scattered hits and striking out nine. He was practically invincible with men on the bases. In the fourth frame, with the bases loaded and none out, he struck out three men in a row, to end the inning.

Charlie Lyon, bespectacled Garnet veteran, who fanned fifteen Haverford batters in the Haverford game last year, lasted only four innings. Freshman Dimpf took up the hurling duties in the fifth, but he failed to live up to his reputation, for he was touched for six hits and six runs in the sixth, and three hits and one run in the eighth.

WELL! WELL!

George Dunn, Garnet baseball coach, told one of our players before game time on Saturday that this year's team was the best he had ever coached at the Hixkiste institution, and that if we defeated them we were a fine ball team. A swell fellow, George, and that coming from him is high praise.

Finley, Weightman, And Goldmark Triumph At Swarthmore

Forced to play without the services of Captain Judge Parry and Bob Braucher, the Scarlet and Black tennis team went down to a 6-3 defeat at the hands of a superior Army team at West Point last Wednesday. With Parry and Braucher back in the lineup, the locals closed their season by bowing to a fighting Garnet team at Swarthmore on Friday, 5-4.

Sophomore Frank Ramsey and Rhinie Winslow Shaw, regular jays were winners for Haverford at Army. Both of them won their singles matches and then combined to take their doubles engagement.

The annual encounter with the ancient rivals at Swarthmore was close, and the final outcome was in doubt after the two teams had split the singles and the first two doubles matches. Bob Braucher and Johnny Goldmark, playing the third doubles match, took the first set but were forced to bow under the strong pressure of their opponents.

John Finley's battle with Lew Whyte proved to be the best match of the day. Finley and Whyte won a set apiece, and then John put on the pressure, and lost only one point in the last set, that being in the first game. The Haverford No. 2 man then took five love games to win going away, 6-2, 4-6, 6-0.

Moravian Nips Nine In Clost Tilt, 11-10

Fraser Hits Home Run In Eighth; Taylor, Wingerd Star

In a battle replete with errors, walks and substitutions Moravian's baseball team won a close decision from the local nine, 11-10, at Haverford Tuesday afternoon. 10 fielding errors and 11 walks necessitated the use of six pitchers by the two teams.

Hubie Taylor was once more the leader of the locals' batting attack, hitting a double and three singles out of five times at bat, his hits driving across 3 runs.

Mears Not Effective

Frank Mears started the game but did not prove particularly effective, and in Moravian's big third inning he was relieved by "Lefty" Bown. Bown retired the side in order after entering the game with no warm-up. Welbourne pitched the last five innings and held the visitors on check with the exception of the fifth inning, when they scored three runs on two hits, a walk and a batter being safe by being hit by a pitched ball.

The Randallmen's big inning was the third, when they tallied four times on Wingerd's single, Taylor's double, two walks and an error. Chick Fraser hit a home run down the third base line with none on in the eighth.

Ross Checks Locals

Ross, a star on Moravian's basketball team, was the only pitcher who checked the Main Liners. In the last four innings he allowed four hits and one run. Hubie Taylor's double in the third was limited by ground rules to two bases, but could have reached home easily on the play.

Track Team Takes Sixth Place In Middle Atlantics

Rutgers University Wins 24 Year Old Meet For 4th Straight Year

Bill Myer Cops 2nd In Javelin, 5th In Discus; Chuck Holzer Takes 3rd In The Shot And 4th In The 100; Sam Evans 2nd In Hurdles

Competing with contestants representing eighteen member colleges of the M. A. S. C. A. A., Coach "Pop" Haddleton's track team finished up in sixth place in the annual meet at Swarthmore on Friday and Saturday. Rutgers University of New Brunswick won the meet for the fourth consecutive year with 38 points, scoring three first places and numerous seconds, thirds and fourths. Bucknell University from Lewistown finished second with 23 points.

Steve Cary, flashy sprinter, failed to qualify on Friday and yet he ran the fastest 440 yards he has ever run. Steve was in a particularly fast heat and finished fourth in 51.8 seconds. The other two heats were run in considerably slower time and had Steve been entered in one of them, he might have placed in the finals, the time of which was 51.6 seconds.

Holzer Places Well

"Pop" was well pleased with the performance of Captain Holzer in the 100-yard dash and the shot put event. Chuck had to compete in the semi-final heat of the 100 just after he had finished taking a third in the shot put. The finish of the 100-yard dash was what might be called a "blanket finish," not more than a yard separating the five men who placed. The time of the event, 10.2 seconds, was slow in contrast to the heat times of 10.1 seconds.

Bill Myer, tied with Holzer for scoring honors in college individual track points, did well in the two events in which he was entered. Myer tossed the javelin 170 feet,  $\frac{1}{2}$  inch to place second to Aaron Arnold, Alfred College. Bill also took fifth place in the discus throw with a heave of 118 feet, 1 inch. Francis Tentschert of the victorious Rutgers team won with a toss of 143 feet,  $\frac{3}{4}$  inches.

Evans 2nd In Hurdles

Sam Evans, star sophomore hurdler, ran a brilliant race in the 220-yard low hurdles and finished second to Oliver Pearson of Swarthmore, who had previously defeated Sam in the smashing Haverford victory over the Garnet here on Junior Day. Pearson's time was 24.7 seconds, with third place taken by Alvin Bidwell of Lafayette.

The high jump saw Sturge Poorman tied for third place with George Forsythe of the Garnet and Elmer Gaumer of Ursinus. Myer and Poorman both had difficulty in the event because of the bumpy sloped take-off. The take-off was part grass and part dirt and made jumping very treacherous and difficult. Poorman jumped 6 feet, 1 7-8 inches in the Middle Atlantics at Lehigh last year. The field judge gave that decision, but it was entered in the books at 6 feet, 13-4 inches due to the negligence of the scorers. If the proper height had been entered, George Verrill of Rutgers, who won this year with 6 feet, 1 7-8 inches, would have earned only a tie for the record.

Haverford didn't take a place in the pole vault. Lester, deBaussett, and Kelly all competed but their best height was 11 feet, while Ralph Heller of Lehigh won at 12 feet, 3 inches.

Morian in Fast Heat

Clark Morian, speedy dashman, went out in the first heat of the 220-yard dash on Saturday when Stebbins of Bucknell, Allen of Rutgers and Young of Washington College, finished in 1-2-3 order in the fast time of 22.2 seconds. All three of these men placed in the finals with Stebbins winning first place, Allen third place, and Young fifth place. The time was 22.3 seconds in the final.

Haverford entered the freshman medley relay (a special event with the 880-yard dash, the 440-yard dash, the 220-yard dash, and the mile being run off in relay fashion). Jack Evans ran the 880, Nat Evans ran the 440, Charley Fisher, star freshman hurdler, ran the 220, while Bill Evans did the mile.

Bill Evans Falls

After Fisher had passed the baton to Bill Evans for the final part of the relay, a Swarthmore 220 man who had just passed his baton to a teammate, turned left to leave the track instead of right and ran into Bill and knocked him down. This put Haverford out of the running and had this unfortunate accident not occurred, the locals might have replaced Swarthmore in third place. Though it was obviously a foul, the officials termed it "stupidity," and it can be chalked up to inexperience rather than to an intentional attempt to hamper the Scarlet and Black's chances.

Lafayette Meet Today

The track team winds up the season today with a dual meet with Lafayette at Easton. Should they triumph, they will finish the season undefeated.

Gulbrandsen Chairman Of Intramural Comm.

The appointment of H. C. Gulbrandsen, '37, as chairman of the Intramural committee for 1936-37 was approved by the Students' Council Thursday night. At the same meeting, acting upon the recommendation of the Intramural Committee, E. L. Hawkins, Jr., '37, and A. P. Leib, '38, were appointed to the positions of Intramural Manager and Assistant Intramural Manager respectively.

In a statement of policy for the coming year, Gulbrandsen said that he intended to carry on the good work of Bob Baird, retiring chairman. "There will probably be no touch football next fall," he said, "owing to the lack of interest. No other changes are planned."

Haverford Cricketeers Lose To Crescent A. C. Eleven In Away Contest

Although somewhat improved in fielding, Captain Rector's cricket team hit a decided slump in batting and was defeated 123-64 by the slugging Crescent A. C. team in a match played on Saturday at Huntington. L. I. Bill Crawford was best at bat for the locals, scoring 16 not out. Pat Trench also knocked up a 16 and Jack Jaquette was third with 11.

Wetter was the Crescent star, batting a total of 45 before retiring half way through the match. The most spectacular batting feat of the afternoon, however, was furnished by Flick of the Crescent team. Flick was in for just one over, but knocked five boundary fours before Ligon bowled him out on the eighth and final ball of the over. The match next Saturday will be played here with the Washington C. C. The Haverford XI will then wind up the season with a return match with the Alumni. The record of the local team is now three wins and two losses.

Episcopal Track Team Trounces Rhinie Squad 75-42; Fernald Shines

Taking all but three first places, the Episcopal School track team romped over the Rhinie trackmen, 75-42, in Thursday's meet on Walton Field, as Mason Fernald and Nick Biddle led the way for the victors.

Fernald, winning the 120-yard high hurdles, gave the Blue and White a one-point lead after the first event, and the visitors increased this, being at no time in danger. Fernald's times in the highs and lows were 15.9 and 25.6, while he also captured first honors in the high jump.

Episcopal Sweeps 880

Biddle, also of Episcopal, was outstanding in the sprints, easily winning the hundred and leading his teammates to a clean sweep of the 220. In a slow 880, Bill Evans was not quite able to pass Art Hopkins, whose final burst of speed brought him out of danger as he crossed the tape.

In spite of the loss of Joe Winger, who got spiked in the high jump, the Scarlet and Black fledglings got second and third places in the broad jump, while Charlie Fisher pulled a muscle in the low hurdles, limping in for third place honors.

Varsity Golf Team Defeats Grads, 6-3

Match Between Williams And White Goes To Twentieth Hole

With one match going to the twentieth hole the varsity golf team defeated the Alumni, 6-3, on the Merion Course Tuesday afternoon. Bert Linton was medalist with a score of 74, while Bob Edgar was low man for the Alumni with a 77.

The match between Alec Williams of the Collegians and White of the Grads was the closest of the afternoon. Williams was 2 up on White with two to go, but the latter got a birdie and a par on the last two holes to tie up the match. Williams went ahead to win on the second extra hole.

F. Burnside Defeats Brother
In the third foursome Frank Burnside '35, defeated his brother, Bob, '38, 1 up. The two brothers put on a good match, each shooting an 84.

Next Saturday the golfers travel to West Point to meet the Army golf team. A match is planned with the Faculty for Thursday or Friday before Commencement.

J. V. Golf Team Bows To Tigers, Tie Valley Forge

The J. V. Golf team played two matches last week, tying Valley Forge Military Academy on Tuesday, 3 1/2 to 3 1/2 in a five man match at Merion Cricket Club. Rhinie Wilson was low scorer with an 86.

The two teams meet again this week for a return match. Friday the team lost to a superior Princeton J. V. team to the score of 7-2. Duff turned in the single local win; and the first foursome, composed of Duff and Himes annexed best ball.

Rhinies Again 1st In Psych. Exam, Comparison Shows

Top Country For Eighth Time, But Rank Unofficially

J. Tinnon Leads Class

For the eighth consecutive time, though unofficially this year, Haverford freshmen have led the country in the psychological examination given by the American Council of Education.

Comparison of results of the 1935 hour examination given to freshmen here last fall with results published in the Educational Record for April 1936 by L. L. and T. G. Thurstone, shows that Haverford leads the field of more than 200 colleges and universities, exceeding the nearest competitor by 19 1/2 points.

The test given here was never reported to the Council of Education and hence is not accounted for in the report in the Educational Record. In the statement the median gross score of the leading institution was 254.50, while the Haverford median was 275.00. An institution code number was used in the results, and since the code is not known by the office here, direct comparisons with other colleges cannot be made.

J. M. Tinnon, '39, ranked first in the Haverford examination. He prepared at New Rochelle High School, New Rochelle, N. Y. He is a member of the News Board. The remaining nine of the first ten men in the Class of '39 are in order: F. K. Mears, Jr., T. A. Morgan, Jr., R. H. Ames, H. H. Morris, M. A. Webster, Jr., S. S. Rosen, R. W. Force, N. H. Evans, and A. W. Moseley, Jr.

Since the 1935 examination differed from previous ones, comparison with results of other years cannot be made on a point basis. However, last year Haverford excelled the median of its nearest competitor by 38.85 points.

Cultivating friendships, acquiring a legible handwriting and the ability to get along with people plus adequate technical knowledge are the requisites for a successful doctor, stated Dr. Babbitt.

A. Kane Chosen Best All-Around In Annual News Questionnaire

Cont. from Page 2, Col. 5 while only 6 prefer redheads. Regardless of the color of their hair, 150 will approve women's smoking while 72 do not. When it comes to drinking 135 say no and 88 say yes. The eyes have it in the consideration of necking.

A Republican would be elected president in the coming election if Haverford students were the sole voters, as indicated by the 2-1 vote for any Republican over President Roosevelt. That Republican would be Landon, who received 47 more votes than his nearest competitor, Hoover. A wide majority, 154, would be willing to fight for the U. S. government in the case of invasion. 55 would fight under no circumstances and a very small minority would fight to protect the Philippines, American commercial interests or to aid foreign powers. Another 2-1 vote shows that Haverford does not favor more government in business. 146 voted that the U. S. government should take responsibility for the unemployed as opposed to 71. In the most decisive ballot of the questionnaire, 205 do not approve of Italy's policy toward Ethiopia. 73 approve of the remilitarization of the Rhine while 152 do not. The Veterans of Future Wars cannot become a powerful peace organization is the belief of two-thirds of the voters. In a very close vote, a majority think that organized student action such as the recent peace strike is an effective means of combating war.

A majority of 113 drink occasionally as opposed to 24 who drink considerably and 93 who claim never to drink. The majority of votes in regard to the number of movies attended per month was for 2-48 indicated that they attend 4 per month. The Readers Digest was voted the favorite magazine with Time, the New Yorker and Colliers following in that order. By an overwhelming vote of 108, the New York Times was selected as the favorite newspaper. The Philadelphia Inquirer and Bulletin were second and third with votes of 37 and 21 respectively. Although a great number of movie actors were nominated as favorites, Leslie Howard received 31 votes to take first place, closely followed by Fred Astaire. Mryna Loy and Ginger Rogers were first and second choices for movie actresses with Katharine Hepburn third.

With the margin of 20 votes, Hit Parade was selected as the favorite radio program. Second and third were Ford's Sunday Hour and Jack Benny. Charles Evans Hughes received the greatest number of votes for the greatest living American, having almost twice as many votes as his nearest rivals, Henry Ford and President Roosevelt. In a 3-1 vote, Harvard was selected as the best men's college, including co-ed and excluding Haverford.

Tennis was selected as the favorite sport to play and football, to watch. Three professions, medicine, law and teaching were the leading vocations indicated. A majority of 112 stated that the College has not helped them to decide upon their vocation. In the American League, Haverford picks Detroit to win the pennant. The New York Giants were chosen to come out on top in the National League. Leading the field by 51 votes, Benny Goodman's band was indicated as the best jazz band. Ray Noble and Guy Lombardo were named second and third. By a vote nearly 7-1, the student body indicated their belief that Bruno Richard Hauptmann was guilty, while 134 did not approve of Governor Hoffman's action in the case.

THEATRE

Cont. from Page 4, Col. 4 All of which doesn't say very much about "Golden Arrow." Well, despite the transparent plot, it's a rather good picture. The dialogue is amusing when it needs to be. Mr. Brent, though not a very startling actor, carries off his role acceptably well, and Miss Davis is fine in a very simple part which unhappily makes few demands on her fine talent. The author has avoided the all too prevalent fashion of dragging in by the hair numerous "comics" and other such histrionic gags, and the result is a pleasingly compact and well-balanced piece of modern comedy.

The Glee Club has had the best management in twelve years, stated Mr. William P. Bentz, director of the Glee Club, at the banquet Thursday. He also commended the "splendid" leadership of Pugliese. He expressed his desire for a joint concert with the choral society of Bryn Mawr next year on some Brahms or Bach work.

Drinker Is Chosen Head Cheer Leader

Seeks To Arouse More Interest In "Pep" Rallies Next Year

H. S. Drinker, III '37, was appointed head cheer leader for 1936-37 by the Students' Council Thursday evening. He succeeds J. W. Pearce, Jr., and G. B. Thomas, Jr., both of '36, co-head cheer leaders this year.

Drinker, who is an Engineering major, has served as an assistant cheer leader for two years, missing a greater part of this season, however, because of illness. H. B. Cox and A. P. Leib, both of '38, will act as assistant cheer leaders for 1936-37, it was also announced.

In an interview Drinker announced that more definite attempts will be made next year to arouse more interest in pep rallies. More of the demonstrations in front of the dormitories of varsity athletes, especially during football season, which were common several years ago, will be resumed. An attempt will also be made to secure a wider selection of speakers for the rallies in the Alumni Room before big games, Drinker also stated.

Tryouts for additional assistant cheer leaders will be held early in the fall, Drinker announced. He urged that as many members of the Class of '39 as possible turn out.
