A meeting of the Students' Association was held Wednesday, May 23, President Marshall in the chair and Heller secretary. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and ~~adopted~~ adopted.

The Treasurer's report for 1925-26 was read and accepted.

An amendment to Article IV, Section 6 of the Constitution of the Students' Association was moved for posting and passed. The ^{Proposed} amendment is:

The chairman of the Student Extension Committee shall be appointed from the members of the Association at large by the President of the Association immediately following his inauguration upon the joint recommendation of the retiring chairman of said committee and the retiring President of the Association subject to the approval of the newly elected Students' Council.

The retiring chairman of said committee shall present a written report in person of his financial expenditures and work during the year one week before the appointment of his successor.

The Curriculum Committee suggested that students from the Graduate School and undergraduates combine for courses which are now being given separately. Such courses are: Philosophy, Economics, History, and Sociology. ~~Miller protested.~~ It was moved and passed that the Students' Association go on record as being agreeable to having students from the Graduate School attend classes at College when necessary.

Marshall turned the meeting over to Webster and the meeting adjourned.

A meeting of the Students Association was held Friday, September 24, President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

President Webster announced that the Dean had given his sanction to the keeping of cars on the campus over week-ends of dances and to the keeping cars off the campus at neighboring garages through the year if the privilege were not abused.

It was requested that "Waukie Wau" be sung only the nights before Varsity games.

President Webster explained the Dean's proposed cut system wherein unlimited cuts would be given to Seniors and Juniors regardless of averages. If in the eyes of the Faculty a man should abuse the privilege he would be put on probation after receiving a warning. There would be no cuts possible the two days before or after a vacation. Taking cuts at these times would automatically put a man on probation. The Dean, however, would co-operate in having classes excused for men who live at a distance from college. The plan was discussed and Fay moved that The Students Association favor the proposed cut system. The motion was seconded and unanimously passed.

The meeting adjourned on motion.

December 9, 1926

A meeting of the Students Association was held December 9 with President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. ^{minutes read and approved} Webster explained the action of the Council in fining rather than recommending expulsion in the past few cases of breakage of college property. He reported that the Sophomore and Freshman classes would share the expense of the breaking of a window at the Sophomore entrance to Founders Hall.

Webster reported that the Dean had requested that students wear ties and coats to Library lectures. It was reported that Mr. Johnson would curtail the use of lights if students continued to leave them burning while not in use.

The majority of the students were in favor of having students speak in collection.

The opinion was expressed that the Interclass Dances should be limited to those classes for which they are named.

A meeting of the Students Association was held March 14 with President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. President Webster laid before the Association the recently rejected clause of the amendment to the Constitution with regard to the Store Committee's control of campus agencies. After discussion the formerly posted clause was passed.

President Webster reported the two plans proposed by the Board of Managers for control of the Customs Committee. One was that the Committee should be appointed by the Dean, the other that the student body should elect one half, the Dean should appoint one half and the Chairman of the Committee. Webster suggested that the Association favor the return to the old system of having a Senior Chairman. Lober suggested that so that he might have more time to devote to the matter the chairman not be a football or soccer man. It was moved, seconded, and passed that the Students Association go on record as being in favor of having an upper class chairman.

President Webster spoke of the present inadequate salaries received by the ~~pro~~ members of the Faculty, sighting an instance of one man who had been living in comparative poverty. M. V. Melchior moved, ^{with the last clause added by Lober} that the Students Association favor ^{that} no further expenditures be made by the college until adequate provision is made to increase the salaries of the present Faculty so as to be commensurate with salaries of men in other institutions. The motion was passed with one dissenting vote.

1926-27

October 6, 1926

October 6, 1926

A meeting of the Student Council was held Wednesday, October 6, President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. Richardson, Chairman of the Campus Events Committee, reported that plans for the Football Dance to be held November 13 were taking form and that he had appointed as his committee Bready and Horton, '28, and Downward and Masland, '29. The employment of part of the profits from the dance was discussed. President Webster suggested that they be devoted to the Student Extension Committee. Richardson made the suggestion that they go toward purchasing sweat shirts and pants for the track team.

It was moved and passed that money from fines be annually devoted to the buying and framing of the team pictures in the gymnasium and that the secretary be in charge of this money.

A discussion showed that the Council was in favor of interpreting all rules of the Council as to apply to graduate students as well as to Undergraduates.

The Curriculum Committee was appointed by President Webster after suggestions by members of the Council. It consists of: Webster, chairman, Baker, Lober, and Sargent of the senior class, Stokes, Hetzel, Hollander, and Horton of the Junior Class, and Ensworth and Liveright of the Sophomore Class.

The First Student-Faculty Dinner was scheduled for Friday, October 15.

November 24, 1926

A meeting of the Student Council was held on the afternoon of November 24 President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. The minutes of the two preceding meetings were read and approved.

I. H. Richardson, chairman of the Campus Events Committee read a financial report of the Football Dance. The total profits from the dance amount to $160. It was voted that his report be accepted with thanks.

Sargent mentioned the National Student Federation which will meet at Ann Arbor, Michigan on December 2, 3, and 4. It was voted that the Council go on record as being in favor of giving $25 to John L. Heller who is contemplating going to the conference.

President Webster reported that there would be a student conference at Wesleyan University under the auspices of the senior class of that institution. The Council favored paying the expenses of President Webster and one other man from the Council whom he should appoint to attend the Conference.

As the Walter Camp Fund had advanced to only half of the prescribed quota the Council favored not devoting any money from the Football Dance until next year.

Richardson and Hoskins were appointed to investigate the price of sweat shirt and pants outfits for the track team.

J. P. Fox and G. Johnson were reported for kicking a soccer ball and breaking a window in South Barclay. Two dollar fines were voted for each.

A meeting of the Student Council was held January 20 with Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. The minutes of the preceding minutes were read and approved. ~~Minutes read and approved~~

President Webster explained to Speck, Bevan, Perera, Tripp, and M. Jones that as far as the Council was concerned they were on probation and that future misdemeanors would be dealt with drastically. Johnson, Marshall, and Roedelheim were also apprehended by the Council and a similar explanation given them.

It was voted that proclamations be placed at ^{both} ~~either~~ entrances to the dining room stating that "any action injurious to or jeopardizing college property is prohibited and will be punishable at the discretion of the Council. This is to be construed as to abolish snowballing to or from Founders Hall." Hoskins and Richardson volunteered to explain this action to the Freshman Class.

Banks and Estes were reported for smoking on the campus. ~~They were fined~~ ^{would}

It was decided that the jurisdiction of the Council with regard to drinking on the Atlantic City trip of the Musical Club could be applied only at the concerts.

It was voted to give $20 to the Debating Council.

Hoskins and Richardson reported that the track suits would cost $47.50.

A meeting of the Student Council was held February 21 with President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Perera, '29 and Mellor, '29 were reported for throwing knives at the wall of South Barclay and causing damage to college property. It was moved, seconded, and passed that the Council send a recommendation to Dean Palmer stating that it was in favor of Perera being deprived of the privilege of using college dormitories for one week. It was voted to fine Mellor five dollars and it was agreed that the expenses for repairing damage should be shared between Perera and Mellor.

Webster reported himself for smoking on the campus and was warned. Lester and Rogers were reported for smoking on the campus and it was voted that the usual procedure be adopted.

President Webster reported that during the Christmas vacation, three Alumni and one outsider had had a party of questionable nature in Merion Hall. It was voted that a letter be sent to each man stating that repetition of such conduct would result in barring the offenders from the campus. The Delinquent Alumni Committee as appointed consists of Webster, Lober, and Stokes.

The question of the use of the college property as a thoroughfare and the consequent wearing of a path across the campus between Barclay and the Skating Pond was discussed. It was voted to refer the matter to Dr. Wilson and the Campus Club.

March 11, 1927

A meeting of the Student Council was held Friday, March 11 with President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. It was voted because of misrepresentation that Lester's fine for smoking be read out of the minutes.

Mention was made of the excellent manner in which Perera and Mellor had accepted their punishments for damage to college property. President Webster suggested that all actions of import taken by the Student Council with the exception of those necessary to be at the discretion of the members of the Council be posted at both entrances to Founders Hall. The suggestion was put in the form of a motion and unanimously adopted. It was pointed out that the posting of actions should eliminate the idea of secrecy entertained by many with regard to the actions of the Council and should consequently lead to better confidence and co-operation.

President Webster reported that Dean Palmer had had compiled a list of the unreported damage to college property. In regard to the decrease in said damage over previous years Deah Palmer extended his congratulations to the Council.

It was suggested by Richardson, '28, that President Webster speak to a few students who had been lax in the matter of having unchaperoned girls in the dormitories.

A meeting of the Student Council was held Monday, April 11 with President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved.

Armstrong was reported for habitual smoking on the walk before Lloyd Hall. The secretary was instructed to carry out the regular procedure.

G. Rorer and Hedley were reported for throwing food in the Dining Room and M. Jones and Johnson were reported for throwing food on more than one occasion. It was voted to fine Hedley and Rorer $2 each and to fine Jones and Johnson $4 each with the warning that further misconduct would call for their exclusion from the Dining Room.

President Webster reported that Graduate Manager Hoopes had asked for the opinion of the Student Council with regard to the wearing of the sweat pants and shirts bought for the track team, half of the money being subscribed by the Student Council. As suggested by Webster and Hoskins it was voted that the wearing of the sweat outfits should be limited to track and basketball men who should wear them in season in the natural course of their training. It was also voted that letter men in these two sports be allowed to purchase their uniforms for practically the original purchase price, the understanding being that the Athletic Association would replace the uniforms purchased.

A meeting of the Student Council was held May 16, with President Webster in the chair and Horton secretary. The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved. President Webster read a letter from Alumni Secretary Hoopes stating that the Alumni Association was in favor of offering financial assistance to the establishing of a Haverford Hall of Fame in the Union as proposed by Calkin, '26, and Robinson, '28. The Hall of Fame is to consist of autographed photographs of eminent Haverfordians. Stokes appointed Robinson chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee with Dohan and Bready as the other two members.

President Webster reported that in the case of Haverford College vs. J. A. Johnston Dean Palmer had ruled that graduates of Haverford taking courses at College but not teaching were to come under the jurisdiction of the rules governing the Students' Association. The secretary was accordingly instructed to carry out the regular procedure with regard to smoking.

The Customs Committee for 1927-28 was selected. In the class of '28 Berlinger and Thomas were chosen with Melchior and Yoder the other nominees, in '29 Gawthrop and Downward were chosen over Dohan and Perera, and in '30 Morris and Martin over Frazier and Abernethy.
