

The following documents and statements emanated from the AFL-CIO Executive Council meetings held in February, 1985 at Bal Harbour, Florida:

Tribute to 2 labor leaders, Alvin Gropiron and Ralph Helstein

Political Use of the Hatch Act

The Budget Deficit

The Trade Deficit

The Job Deficit

The Holocaust

Northern Ireland

Poland

South Africa

"... Our assistance will be guided by the same principle that has governed our aid to the workers of Poland, El Salvador and every other country where our help has been requested -- namely, that we will respond to the expressed needs and wishes of our brothers and sisters who are under the gun..."

Health Care Cost Containment

Social Security and Medicare

Protecting Workers and the Public

Federal Workers

Job Corps

Energy

Alcohol Abuse

National Social Work Month

Support the UFW Union Label on Table Grapes

Constitutional Convention

International Youth Year

Kim Dae Jung

Andrei Sakharov

(International Monetary Fund

The Changing Situation of Workers and Their Unions (accompanied by Press Release of 2/21/85 from the AFL-CIO's Committee on the Evaluation of Work)

President Kirkland's Press Conferences of February 18 and 19