“In the name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate. From Usama to Obama: Peace be upon the one who follows guidance.”

“As for what follows: If our messages to you could be carried by words, we would not have delivered them by planes. The message we want to communicate to you through the plane of the hero, mujahid Umar Farouk, may God relieve him, is a confirmation of a previous message, which was delivered to you by the heroes of the 11th [of September] and which was repeated previously and afterward; namely, America will not dream of security until we experience it as a reality in Palestine. It is not fair that you should live peacefully while our brothers in Gaza are experiencing the most miserable living. Based on this, with the permission of God, our raids against you will continue as long as your support for the Israelis is continuing.”

“Peace be upon the one who follows guidance.”
