On 26 February, a forum participant posted to a jihadist website a statement that contains various links to 16th issue of "Vanguards of Khorasan." Also, the posting includes several links to a supplement which includes a statement by the Al-Qa'ida-General Command, praising Abu Dujanah al-Khurasani, (Processed by OCS as GMP20100107836001.) The supplement also includes a message in praise of Al-Khurasani by Abu al-Hasan al-Wa'ili, in addition to a message of Al-Khurasani entitled "Message by Brave Lion Abu-Dujanah al-Khurasani on the Night of the Martyrdom," which took the form of a self dialogue, and in which he urges Muslim youths to carry out martyrdom seeking operations. OSC filed the table of contents of the 16th issue of Vanguards of Khorasan Magazine as GMP20100227569002.

"Message by Brave Lion Abu-Dujanah al-Khurasani on the Night of the Martyrdom-seeking Operation:

"In the name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate

"Al-Qa'ida - General Command

"Statement on the Abu-Dujanah Al-Khurasani Raid (May God Accept Him) To Infiltrate the Fortresses of the Americans:

"And there is the type of man who gives his life to earn the pleasure of Allah. And Allah is full of kindness to (His) devotees (Koranic verse, Al-Baqarah, 2:207).'

"Under the Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan (may God bless and glorify it), with nearly unmatched courage, faith, resolve, determination, reliance on God, a great and uncontrollable desire to meet and please the Almighty, incredible selflessness, patience, suffering, careful planning, innovative execution, and epic precision infiltration of the infidel enemy intelligence (Jordan and America), and war is deception, the heroic mujahid Dr Abu-Dujanah al-Khurasani (Humam Khalil Muhammad Abu-Mulal), the famous writer-herald on jihadist websites, the emigrant and the one who offered self and wealth for jihad, the one who reached the pinnacle of his effort and upon whom God bestowed grace and protection, set forth, wholeheartedly, without turning back, and with delight, to carry out his martyrdom infiltration operation, detonating his innovative and masterfully crafted explosive vest, which was concealed from the eyes of those who do not believe in the hereafter, at a gathering of American and Jordanian intelligence personnel in Khost, Afghanistan, on Thursday night, 14 Muharram 1431, corresponding to 31 December 2009. (This was) to avenge our righteous martyrs, as he (may God have mercy on him) wrote in his will: 'To avenge the leader, Amir Baitullah Mehsud, the leaders Abu-Salih al-Sumali and Abdallah Sa'id al-Libi, and their brothers (may God have mercy on them).'

"May God have mercy on you, O Abu-Dujanah, and may He elevate your rank in Heaven. O Abu-Layla, by the Lord of the Ka'bah (REFERENCE to the holy site in Mecca), you are victorious (God willing). You spoke the truth and you were righteous. You gave examples (in your writings), and you followed your words with actions. You exhausted other writers and speakers. God is to thank for your accomplishment, patience, jihad, and ability to bear pain for his sake.

Your prayer, resolve, solitude, and your call for help all belong to God. Your reward will come from God. God is your Lord. O beloved, God willing, we will meet before God in Paradise.

"We ask God to bless your work and your family. Your brothers are following your path. They will not rest, and they will not leave the Americans (alone) until they bring down upon them a great and most incredible annihilation. Let the nation of Islam be congratulated and proud of people like you.

"God is great. Praise be to God.

"The appropriate media entity will publish his story (may God have mercy on him) in a proper production (with the help of God).

"May the peace and prayers of God be upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family, companions, and those who followed them.

"General Command of the Qa'idat al-Jihad Organization (Al-Qa'ida in Afghanistan)

"As represented by Mustafa Abu-al-Yazid

"Afghanistan / 16 Muharram 1431 (corresponding to) 2 January 2010" (OSC processed this statement on 6 January as GMP20100107836001)

"Introduction:

"Praise be to God, Lord of all creation. Peace and prayers be upon the one who was sent as mercy to all creation.

"God the Almighty has honored me by making me one of the mujahidin He loves and supports. My honor increased when some of them loved me. By God, it is a great blessing, and honor that I deserve from me to thank God by night and by day. The most beloved feeling to me is when one of those you love is martyred and you imagine that the martyr talked to God, took paradise as accommodation, and hugged the beautiful Hurs (maidens of Paradise). Imagine that one of the martyrs loves you for the sake of God.

"Among the martyrs is the martyr -- as we reckon him but God is his Reckoner -- Dr Abu-Dujanah al-Khurasani. This name used to bear glad tidings to the hearts of Muslims through his distinguished writings. At the same time, he infuriated, by his letters, the infidels, apostates, and hypocrites. Doing so, he wished to be counted as one of those who wage jihad by tongue and pen. He used to write in a fabulous way and expressions that make you read his writings for one, two, three times without any weariness, so much so the reader wishes that his words would have no end. He said that the dogs of the Jordanian intelligence told him that they enjoyed his articles! Surely, his articles vexed them for the truth and call to God the Almighty they include. Yet, they meant the superiority of his technique, may he rest in peace.

"(Poetry line) 'By God, graves do not cover his deeds. But, it covered clothes and bones' (end of poetry)

"God provided our departed one with faith, brainpower, intelligence, and cunning. Hence, he deceived, by God's support, the legend of the illusion; CIA, that causes the subjugated and weak persons to shiver for hearing its name, believing that everything within the scope of its knowledge! God is Superior than they think. He also, deceived the Jordanian intelligence which brag -- rudely and heretically -- of being the second state after the United States in confronting the mujahidin. Abu-Dujanah made the entire world laugh at them. He forced them to bury their faces in sand for the severe action done to them by this hero. He mixed their cards and perplexed their masters and agents when he broke through them without fear and without paying any attention to them or what is envisioned by those infatuated with them. He blew himself up in them, making the infidel and agent media outlets to cry over and feel sorry for them for long days and nights. The details will come to you soon as mentioned in the above statement. I give you the glad tiding that you will see, in video, what will increase your pleasure and happiness and increase the US and Jordanian intelligence's vexation and heartbreak.

"(Poetry line) It left the sons of the yellow (Europeans) in a yellow face like their name and it made the faces of Arabs glowing' (end of poetry)

"At the last night in his life, before sacrificing his life for the sake of God the Almighty, this beloved one remembered his young brother and the poor servant of God and sent him a message. It was the last thing written by Abu-Dujanah al-Khurasani. This message is the dearest to my heart. I will keep this message until God honor me with what he honored those who went before me to the paradise. Our beloved one, Abu-Dujanah al-Khurasani, in this message, conducted an interview with himself about the martyrdom-seeking operations and encouraged Muslims to carry out such operations.

"The message:

"In the name of God, the Merciful, the Compassionate:

"To my brother, Abu-al-Hasan al-Wa'li

"The plan was to carry out the martyrdom-seeking operation tonight, but God pre destined it to be delayed to tomorrow. I seized this great opportunity to write my last lines in this mortal life. I hope they would be an everlasting-rewarded charity whose reward comes to me whenever a Muslim makes use of it.

"At the beginning, I would like to express to you my happiness for this end. Sorry, I mean the beginning of my eternal life. I feel an overwhelming happiness that I have never felt in my life. Tomorrow, I will sacrifice my life to God the Almighty and Exalted -- I ask God to accept me as martyr -- by my own choice, advancing and not running away, and I wait His reward to His martyred servant. I will not forget this reward, God willing, even after getting into the paradise.

"There is something that I will see tomorrow -- if God accepted me as martyr -- which I will remember even in the palaces of the paradise and among the huris. I will see it tomorrow and will not see it again. The virtue of the martyr makes him wish to be killed in the cause of God ten times. And when! After seeing paradise and its eternal bless!

"What a special happiness with otherworldly flavor. By God, the one who does not carry out penetration operation is deprived. Allow me to conduct this interview with myself in the last night in my life as I, often, wished to know what goes on in the mind of the martyrdom-seeker prior to the penetration operation. Today, it is my turn to meet the desire of others in fathoming the psychology of the martyrdom-seeker. I ask God guidance and acceptance.

"Question: Are not you afraid of being coward at the last moment and not be able to press the button?

"Answer: It is an acumen of a man to not to depreciate his enemy. Thus, what if this enemy is the Satan? 'the devil is for man an open foe' (Partial Koranic verse, Al-Isra, 17:53). In fact, Satan knows the big predicament through which the mujahid passes when he decides to carry out a martyrdom-seeking operation. He knows that he does not have time before losing his battle with this man forever. Therefore, he attempts by all means to keep the mujahid away from it. No, he does not ask him to quit jihad since he knows that he is not in good position to do so with the martyrdom-seeker. However, he tries to entice him with other forms of jihad that hold less danger than the martyrdom-seeking operation. He (Satan) says to you: Why do not you try in the frontlines? Why do not you plan a bigger operation that afflicts the enemies of God? If he failed, he will start to say: 'your operation will not be successful; nobody will die except you; you will lose yourself without serve outcome, and so on.' The Satan will try to dissuade the martyrdom-seeker, by all means, from carrying out the operation for he, may God torment him, knows that it is the shortest course to the highest level of paradise.

"To get rid of Satan, my advice is the following:

"1. Ask God not to let you to yourself, weapon, explosive vest, or booby-trapped car for a flicker of an eye. God is the best protector and upon Him the believers depend.

"2. You have to recite the Azkar (supplication) since they are a real fortification for the believer that protects him from the Satan. It is narrated in the hadith that whoever said: 'There is no god but God alone without any partner, to Him belongs all sovereignty and praise and He is omnipotent to do anything,' 100 times will be protected by God from Satan in this day. If you recite this with the two chapters of Al-Falaq and Al-Nas three times by day and night, especially on the day of the operation, the enemy will not catch you, God willing.

"3. Be aware of the virtue of this kind of operations. I advise every martyrdom-seeker to read the book of Ibn-al-Nahas 'Mashari al-Ashwaq', the chapter of the Virtue of Storming, to know the reward of such operations.

"4. Join the martyrdom-seekers before carrying out martyrdom-seeking operations, particularly those whose turn is before yours. Seeing those heroes advancing one after the other to the martyrdom-seeking operations will pave the way for you and make you long for it.

"5. Think good of God. By God, God does not leave his servant alone when he comes to him asking for martyrdom. God loves to meet those who love to meet Him as narrated in the purified Sunnah. If God loves to see anyone, he will make his martyrdom-seeking operation easy and will fasten his heart

"Question: Are not you afraid that you will not be able to reach to the target or that you will be killed before you could detonate the car or the explosive belt on the enemies of God?

"Answer: The intention of the believer is better than his deed. He who intends and wishes to kill the enemies of God without being able to do so, will be rewarded for his intention. However, we pray that God will enable us to kill the enemies. Praise be to God, the martyrdom operations have proved to be the most damaging from the military perspective. Had it not been for their wonderful effects, the leaders of jihad would not have taken an interest in them, and resorted to them on wide scale. If you wish, you can ask the United States about its towers, Britain about its tunnels, and the Zionists about their buses.

"Question: The approach of death is a frightening experience. Does thinking about this matter cause you tension and worry for you are embarking upon something that you have never experienced?

"Answer: On what tension you are talking about? And on what worry? By God, I feel a sense of tranquility, rest, and peace that I have never experienced before. In order to understand the psychological state of a martyrdom seeker; allow me to tell the following example: in an examination hall, college or school students will be of three types: those who did not prepare for the exam and thus try to cheat, and wish that the time of the exam is never-ending in order to be able to cheat as much as they can. The other type is those who prepared well for the exam and thus answer the questions, and revise their answers. This type of students takes use of the full time of the exam. They hand over their papers only after the teacher starts to collect them. The third type is rare. It is those students who answer the question in 10 minutes and who then hand over their papers to the teacher happily and confidently as if they knew the answers in advance or as if they themselves put the questions. They do not revise their answers as if they are 100 percent sure of their answers. This is the martyrdom seeker o brothers. He is the one who holds his soul in his hand and put it into the cannon barrel before he deems himself as one of the martyrs. He is the one who sets on fire the rescue ships, and burns the bridges before setting out to meet the enemies of God without looking back until he is killed. He is a man who knows that life is a trial and the best way for success is: 'And there is the type of man who gives his life to earn the pleasure of Allah. And Allah is full of kindness to (His) devotees.' (Koranic verse, Al-Baqarah, 2:207)

"Therefore, for the martyrdom seeker, the approach of death does not constitute any source of tension or worry. Rather, he yearns to meet His Lord, and to win His good pleasure.

"Question: You have praised the martyrdom operations; however, do not you think that sometimes, the martyrdom operation could be less effective than other forms of jihad?

"Answer: As far as martyrdom operation is concerned, there is one problem. It is that you cannot do it more than once in your life. By Lord, if the martyrdom-seeker owns thousand souls, he would make sure that he sacrifices them all carrying out martyrdom operations. This is the only thing that cannot be achieved in carrying out the martyrdom operation.

"Question: Why is that some brothers list themselves in the martyrdom seekers' list as soon as they arrive to the jihadist arenas, even before going through other types of fighting?

"Answer: Imagine that you are in Mecca and want to travel Baghdad. If it happens that there are two flights from Mecca to Baghdad; a direct flight and an indirect flight where the plane has to go through Riyadh and Amman before it lands in Baghdad, what flight would you choose? Of course the direct flight, is not it? This is what the martyrdom operation is all about if it is carried out with honest intention. It is a direct flight from the earthly life to the high Paradise. No wonder therefore, many brothers hurry to catch the direct flights to Heaven.

"Question: Do you wish that all the mujahdin become martyrdom seekers? If so, who then will participate in the fighting on the frontlines? Who will train other mujahidin, make weapons, and develop explosives? Do not you think that too much focusing on the martyrdom operations may weaken the recruitment of other fields?

"Answer: Everyone knows that as far as jihad is concerned, there are fields that should be taken care of in order to ensure continuity and to afflict the enemy. But you sound as if all the brothers have chosen to carry out martyrdom operations and that no one else remained to take care of other fields. No, the case is not as you think. The arena of jihad is still in need for martyrdom seekers. In many occasions, we have come across many brothers who easily can have access to sensitive targets of the enemy because of their language, nationality or outlook, but, for various reasons, they do not accept to carry out martyrdom operations, and thus missing a great opportunity to afflict the enemy.

"We need intelligent and faithful men to carry out qualitative martyrdom operations. We need men of certainty and creed who are ready to sacrifice themselves for the sake of monotheism. Men who possess the faith and the knowledge of Muhammad Ata, may God grant His mercy on him, who was competent enough to lead very important operations such as 11 September. How can we repeat such operations at the time that we see some people keeping themselves away from them?

"If half of any jihadist group embarks on martyrdom operations, be assured that God will come to their aid. God will come to their aid even before one fourth of their operations are carried out. I can only quote the words of Shaykh Usma Bin Ladin, may God protect him: "talk yourselves into martyrdom operations. Martyrdom operation is a culture of victory and empowerment, and a title for sacrifice and dedication. It is a complete detachment from the silly matters of earthly life, and a disdain of personal gains. We pray to God to instill the love for these operations in the heart of everyone.

"Question: what is your last word to your brothers?

"Answer: My dear brother, excuse me if I talked at length. But by God, It is a guidance and a motivation for one of the best forms of jihad. If God destines that I come back to life one more time, I do not think I will change one word of what I wrote. Therefore o my brother mujahid, do not hesitate, and proceed, may God bless you. By Lord, it is not just one Heaven; there are many heavens waiting for your audacity. How come that you are not yearning for your beautiful wives in Heaven; the wives who cannot wait to meet you? Put your trust on God, do not wait, and list your name in the martyr seekers brigade. Do not say it is a long queue for it is enough honor for you to be killed while waiting the day in which you will carry your martyrdom operation.

"Your loving brother

"Abu-Dujanah al-Khursani

"Praise be to God, Lord of all creation.
